Trinity Sunday celebrates the mystery of the Holy Trinity. The readings help us understand God's wisdom, love, and truth through the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It reminds us of its interconnectedness and calls us to reflect on how each Person of the Trinity is active in our lives. The unity of the Trinity is a model for us. Just as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit work together in harmony, we are called to live in unity and share God's love with others.

Prayer:

Holy Trinity, help us embrace your truth and love, Guide our actions and decisions through the Holy Spirit. May we reflect your unity and share your love with all we meet. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

*"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth,
he will guide you to all truth..."*

—John 16:13

It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear God's response.

Proverbs 8:22-31 / Romans 5:1-5 / John 16:12-15

Wisdom à la Water Balloons

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Calvin and Hobbes comic strip finds Calvin filling water balloons. Immediately, we know there's trouble ahead. Calvin's plan is to drench Susie Derkins unless, as he says, the universe can give him some sign that there is a moral law against it. Calvin gives the universe thirty seconds. When there is no sign, Calvin concludes he is allowed to soak Susie. He finds her and pummels her with water balloons. Susie takes off after Calvin as he runs, screaming, "Help! Help!" The final frame shows Calvin, dazed and beaten, wondering why the universe always gives the sign after you do something.

It does seem that we learn more about the ways of life from our mistakes and upheavals than we do from the times when life unfolds smoothly. It is how we come to wisdom—the wisdom that is the very aura of God present in our lives. In fact, John's Gospel points out that God is always the one who brings us to that wisdom; a God woven into the very ups and downs of what we are about. "When he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth" (John 16:13). It is St. Paul who notices how the troubles of life are always the source of new wisdom. He writes of how our afflictions lead us to endurance, and how endurance brings about character, and how it is our character (our inner values) that brings us to hope and trust in God's wisdom rather than in our own. In so many ways, it is the power and presence of the Holy Trinity making us new. ●

-Reflect-

Think of a time when life was difficult. What blessings or important lessons did you receive as a result?

Congratulations to the newly confirmed!

We joyfully congratulate the newly confirmed members of Sts. Peter & Paul: Aycen, Marvin, Geoffrey, Gregory, Perstan, Jonae, Raiden, Jose, Aegian, Adam, Keahi, Catelaya, Isaiah, and Maverick. Thank you to Monsignor Gary Secor for celebrating and administering the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion to our Faith Formation children and youth. We continue to pray for them and their families on their faith journey.

OCIA news

We are so grateful to our many parishioners who have prayed for and supported our catechumen and candidates. God has been so faithful to hold them in his safekeeping. Now fully Catholic, they go forth to witness and serve Jesus their new master.

During the summer, we will show Bishop Barron's videos on the Mass. On August 30th, we will kick off our next season of OCIA with Peter Cruz, who will introduce the saints of the Church who are converts. More information to come.

Dear Padre,

June 15, 2025

What does the Church teach about respect for the body after death? Is burial the most respectful? It's certainly the most expensive. What about donating your body to science? Or cremation? If someone is cremated, can the ashes be kept respectfully by a family member, or do they have to be buried?

Your question serves as a summation of current practice and exposes the real-life dilemma and choices facing loved ones: "How can I be respectful and at the same time practical?"

Catholics believe that the body of the deceased must be respected and not simply disposed of without care or concern. Current practice allows for burial, cremation, and the donation of the body to science, and choices depend in large part on tradition, culture, and economic circumstances. If someone chooses to donate to medical science, it is with the understanding that the body will be cremated or properly buried. If cremation is the chosen option, proper burial of the cremains in a sacred place is required.

All of this assumes an uneventful passing of the deceased person. It does not account for war, disease, or disaster. When faced with ordinary, rather than extraordinary, circumstances, loved ones have a real opportunity to be grateful and thankful for the chance to mourn, grieve, and show respect for the person. Unfortunately, that is not always the case in today's world. ●

Father's Day

I will instruct you and show
you the way you
should walk,
give you
counsel with my eye upon you.

Psalms 32 : 8

GOD BLESS
our Fathers
