Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23 / Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11 / Luke 12:13-21

Remember This

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Remember this: Jesus said, “one’s life does not consist of possessions.” But, if not that, what then?

Think back upon your memories: the first warm day of spring, when the fireworks of new life exploded upon you; laughing so hard that your sides hurt, and you and your friends could not stop laughing even to breathe; walking barefoot in the dewy grass; your best friend telling you you’re best friends; learning to finally ride a bike no-handed and thinking that you moved up a rung on the ladder of awesomeness; the first time you dared to risk reaching for the hand of someone you discovered you liked more than anyone else; the unbelievable wonder at the birth of your child; making googly faces at a burbling baby, and the baby googling back; your child snuggling into bed with you at two in the morning because she’s frightened by the thunderstorm; talking with friends on and on into the night and wishing it could go on for forever; a cold beer, the reward for cutting the grass on a dizzying summer afternoon; being young with an abundance of dreams of what might be; growing old and thinking life was worth it all.

Remember this: there is so much more to life than one’s possessions. We all know this, and yet we forget. Perhaps in forgetting, we might be surprised again and again by the beauty of what cannot be purchased and so recognize the loving touch of our God. ●

-Reflect-

What is more important to me than possessions?
Does my life reflect this?

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."

—Luke 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy, and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

AUGUST 2025 OLAKINO REMINDER

Please note that, due to the Hawaii Food Bank's schedule, next month's Olakino Produce Distribution will be held on Saturday, August 9th instead of the usual third Saturday.

Olakino Produce Distribution

Saturday, August 9th

Distribution time is 10:00am–11:00am (or until produce runs out). All are welcome to receive fresh produce. If you would like to sign up as a volunteer to help register recipients, pack food, or direct traffic, please see the volunteer signup on our Parish website (click on the pineapple logo). This project is sponsored by our Parish Social Mission together with Hawaii Foodbank.

THIS WEEK'S SECOND COLLECTION (AUG 2 & 3)
CATHOLIC CHARITIES HAWAII

The theme for this year's Catholic Charities Sunday, "Light of Hope," echoes the motto for the Jubilee Year. Guided by the mission of its founders, the Maryknoll Sisters, Catholic Charities Hawaii strives to carry out the social mission of the church by serving the people of Hawaii, regardless of their faith or culture.

In Loving Memory of Fr. Khanh Pham-Nguyen

Rest in Peace

With heavy hearts and in deep sorrow, we share the news of the passing of our beloved Father Khanh Pham-Nguyen.

Father Khanh recently completed a meaningful and prayer-filled pilgrimage on the El Camino de Santiago, traveling from Portugal to Spain. Throughout his journey, he carried our parish in his heart and lifted us in prayer every step of the way.

Upon returning to the United States and while visiting his family in New Mexico, Father experienced unexpected health complications and was hospitalized. Early Sunday morning, July 27, 2025, he peacefully returned to the Lord.

Father Khanh's love for Christ, His Church, and Blessed Mother, was evident in the way he lived, served, and prayed. He was a spiritual father, a faithful shepherd, and a dear friend to many. We are grateful for his life, his ministry, and the grace he brought into our community.

Please continue to keep Father Khanh, his family, and all who mourn his passing in your prayers. May he rest in the eternal peace of Christ whom he served so faithfully.

Thank you all for your prayers, love, and support for Father Khanh through the years. Your faith and compassion truly reflect the heart of our community.

Lord, we entrust our beloved priest into your merciful hands, grateful for his life of service and faith. May he find eternal rest in Your presence, free from pain and sorrow, rejoicing in Your glory. Comfort those who mourn his passing, and inspire us to carry on his legacy of love and devotion.

Funeral Services Information

In accordance to Fr. Khanh's wishes, a private cremation service will be held. The cremated remains will be transferred to the Diocese of Honolulu for Funeral and Rite of Committal/Burial.

Dear Padre,

Sometimes after Mass, I go to the late service at a “Bible church” with the rest of my family. Once a month, this church serves communion, but they make it clear that it is only as a memory of Jesus and the Last Supper, and that Jesus is not present at communion. Is it OK to receive this communion?

The Catholic understanding of Holy Communion includes not only the understanding of Communion as the Body and Blood of Christ, but it includes something more. Communion is a statement of belief and a statement of belonging. When Catholics participate in the sacrament, they are identifying with divinity as well as with the community of believers who are joined together in “one mind and in one spirit.” It is an act of unity, a real “communion.” Even though the Bible church clearly teaches a different theology of communion, it would seem to me that, for a Catholic, the fullest meaning and understanding of Communion is important and worth witnessing to. For this reason, I would refrain from participating in communion at the Bible church. Do so quietly and respectfully, because what is being celebrated is important; it just does not have the full meaning that you understand is necessary. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Covetousness of goods, the desire to have goods, does not satisfy the heart, but rather causes more hunger!... Be careful! Love...is the source of true happiness, whereas the exaggerated search for material goods and wealth is often a source of anxiety, adversity, abuse of power, war. Many wars begin from covetousness.

ANGELUS, ROME, AUGUST 4, 2019
