Habakkuk 1:2-3, 2:2-4 / 2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14 / Luke 17:5-10

Never Big Enough

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Childhood daydreams come peppered with visions of heroes and heroines, movie stars and rock stars, fame and notoriety. Eventually, however, we adjust our visions of what we can become as we are confronted by the reality of who we are. Seldom, however, are our daydreams and visions big enough. They tend to be only about ourselves, barely including others.

The same may be said about becoming people of faith. Too readily we think of faith simply as our personal decision to believe in God. Faith then becomes one-sided—the prayers we say, the Masses we attend, the Church's rules we obey. Like the people of the prophet Habakkuk's day, we may bemoan, "I cry for help and you do not listen.... [I] cry out to you, 'Violence!' and you do not intervene" (Habakkuk 1:2).

Then, too, our faith and its vision for life are not big enough, for we do not allow room for God to slip into our lives and do what God does. Then, faith is only about ourselves—our needs and struggles and pains. Faith needs to be a surrender to God's vision, not simply for ourselves, but for all of life. [The Lord said,] "The vision is a witness for the appointed time...it will not disappoint. If it delays, wait for it, it will surely come, it will not be late" (Habakkuk 2:3). The difficulty is that we want God to make life perfect for us the way we want it and when we want it. Then, it becomes our vision for life and not God's. ●

God's plan to be perfect for me?

Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for October

For collaboration between different religious traditions
 Let us pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice, and human fraternity.

WELCOME FATHER ARNEL SORIANO!

With joy and gratitude, we welcome Father Arnel Soriano as Pastor and Father Khanh Hoang as part-time Parochial Vicar. Bishop Larry Silva will install Father Arnel as Pastor of Sts. Peter and Paul Church on Saturday, October 11, 2025 at the 5:00pm Mass. All ministry leaders, pastoral and finance council members are encouraged to attend this liturgy.

Please join us in extending a warm welcome to Father Arnel at all Masses on the weekend of October 11—12, and let us offer our prayers as Father begins his ministry of shepherding our parish community.

MAHALO to Father Arnold Ortiz for having served as administrator for our Parish during the interim. We appreciate your time and pastoral care.

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control."

—2 Timothy 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything—all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant to our Lord?

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. The Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated on October 7.

The Church will celebrate the Feast Day of St. Carlo Acutis on October 12. Take some time to find out who he was and what he did!

The Catholic Church in the U.S. also observes October as "Respect Life Month." We consider more deeply why every human life is valuable and reflect on how to build a culture that protects life from conception to natural death. For more information on October

Respect Life Month, visit
<https://www.respectlife.org/>.

The Ohana in Christ Second Collection for this weekend is cancelled, but will be replaced by a special Appeal, launching soon.

Have a rosary that's broken or missing beads?

You may drop them off to the Parish Office to have it repaired or donated (please put them in a ziplock bag).

- ◆ If you'd like it returned, please label it with your name and contact information and Nettie, a member of the Legion of Mary, will call when they are finished repair.
- ◆ If you'd like to donate it, Nettie will lovingly repair them to make new ones, turning it into a blessing for someone else.

Dear Padre,

Is envy a sin? I find myself becoming very envious of people who have more than I do. I find it difficult to be content with what my family and I have now.

We live in a climate that encourages discontent with what we have. Advertising plays on our feelings of envy and our desire for possessions. In this almost universal rush to possess more and better material objects, Christians are called to a counter-witness. We are called to embrace a freedom and a poverty of spirit that actually rejoices in the blessings of others.

The Tenth Commandment alerts us to the danger of undisciplined envy: “You shall not covet...anything that belongs to your neighbor” (Exodus 20:17). In the New Testament, Jesus says that where our treasure is, there also will be our heart. (See Matthew 6:21.) The real antidote to envy, then, is prayers of thanks for all God has given to us and others. To feel envious, to desire or covet someone else’s possessions, is not in itself a mortal sin. But to let that feeling invade your mind, to indulge it and rationalize it, is to let that feeling harden into an envious frame of mind. Then you are flirting with real sin. The grave sin is to allow these envious thoughts to drive you to any injustice or evil. The Catechism of the Catholic Church sums it up well: “Would you like to see God glorified by you? Then rejoice in your brother’s [and sister’s] progress, and you will immediately give glory to God” (2540). ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

There is so little dialogue around us; shouting often replaces it, not infrequently in the form of fake news and irrational arguments proposed by a few loud voices. Deeper reflection and study are essential, as well as a commitment to encounter and listen to the poor.

ADDRESS, ROME, MAY 17, 2025
