The Gift of Questions

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSSR

We sometimes imagine that a sign of a strong faith is firm conviction and freedom from doubt. However, despite our imaginings, the authentic experiences of saints and ordinary people alike seem to point in another direction. The question of John the Baptist today—"Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" (Matthew 11:3)—suggests that John is filled with questions, and these are important questions because they are asked from the depths of King Herod's prison, which is not exactly the place of idle musings or concerns.

If John, who is a great saint and a man who encountered Jesus and witnessed the powerful manifestation of the Holy Spirit at his baptism, can have a question, doesn't it suggest that questions are acceptable—perhaps even needed? Perhaps questioning is an indication of faithfulness, not a lack of faith. Questions do not suggest that something is missing; rather, they confirm that something is growing and developing. The Baptist could just have easily said, "Jesus, you are doing and saying more than I ever imagined possible. Please help me to understand," or, to quote an unnamed saint, "I do believe, help my unbelief!" (Mark 9:24).

God will not shatter, and faith will not collapse, because you have questions or doubts.

Experience suggests that questions and doubts strengthen our belief and our commitment to a life of faith. ●

Advent – Week Three

Gaudete Sunday, the 3rd Sunday of Advent, is a time of joyful anticipation, reminding us that our waiting is filled with joy and hope. The readings focus on hope, patience, and recognizing God's presence among us. As we prepare for Christ's coming, may we trust in God's promises and His perfect timing.

Lord, help us to see the signs of Your presence in our lives. Give us patience as we wait for You and fill our hearts with joy as we trust in Your promises. May we find hope in Your Works and remain faithful in our journey toward Christmas. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"You too must be patient. Make your hearts firm, because the coming of the Lord is at hand."

—James 5:8

Patience is another one of those things many of us struggle with. We want things to go according to our plan and our schedule; we like things to be convenient. Any change brings anxiety and fear. Through daily prayer God reveals to us what He wants us to do with the gifts He has given us. We are able to better align ourselves with God's will and His plan, which is far better than anything we can come up with on our own.

Joy of Giving

Mahalo to our Olakino Team and volunteers who helped pack and distribute produce to our community on Saturday.*

Mahalo for all generous gifts of Christmas flowers offering in memory of loved ones.*

DECK-THE-HALL!

If you are a seasoned decorator or just want to lend a hand, volunteers are welcome to help decorate the Church and courtyard in preparation for the upcoming Christmas season.

Please join us on:

Misa de Gallo is a nine-day novena of masses dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary, the expectant Mother of God. Misa de Gallo translates to "Rooster's Mass", reflecting the rooster's crowing at dawn, signaling the time to attend mass before starting the workday.

This beloved Filipino tradition will be celebrated in our parish from December 16 to December 24.

Mark your calendars, invite your family and friends, and join us this year on each of the dawn masses as we spiritually prepare and joyfully anticipate our Lord's birth at Christmas. A breakfast fellowship will follow each mass.

Does the Bible say that Mary was in her sixth month of pregnancy at the Annunciation?

The announcement of Jesus' birth in Luke begins, "In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph...and the virgin's name was Mary" (Luke 1:26-27). This Scripture passage taken out of context could possibly give the impression that "in the sixth month" refers to Mary. However, it refers to Mary's cousin Elizabeth, who was in the sixth month of her pregnancy with John the Baptist. The proper context is a few verses before this one that reads, "Elizabeth conceived, and she went into seclusion for five months" (Luke 1:24).

Regarding Mary's pregnancy, at the Annunciation, the angel Gabriel tells her, "Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus.... The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God" (Luke 1:31, 35). Gabriel also informs Mary, "And behold, Elizabeth, your relative, has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren" (Luke 1:36).

In general, women already in their sixth month of pregnancy would likely be aware of their condition, and it would not be easy to conceal from others. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

There are many settings in which the Christian faith is considered absurd.... Yet, precisely for this reason, they are the places where our missionary outreach is desperately needed. A lack of faith is often tragically accompanied by the loss of meaning in life, the neglect of mercy, appalling violations of human dignity, the crisis of the family, and so many other wounds that afflict our society.
