Do Your Children See You Give?

By: Fr. Ryan

Every parent wants to raise children who share and give generously. When our children someday meet God face to face we want to know that they will hear Jesus say to them the same words the master said to those who used their talents wisely, "Well done, my good and faithful servant...Come, share your master's joy." (Matt 25:21)

However, raising a generous child is a challenge in this very materialistic world of ours. One of the key factors in teaching children to be generous is to let them see you giving. After all, children mimic what they see, way more than what they hear.

Today, many donations to the parish or any charitable organization can be made electronically, monthly, quarterly, or via the mail. As a result, children may never actually see their parents give. A son or daughter may grow to have a misconception that mom and dad don't give, when in reality they indeed, are very generous on multiple fronts.

Talk with your kids about the charitable gifts the family is making. Where does it go? Who does it help? Can the kids add their small offerings with that of mom and dad? What are some ways they can see you give monetarily or otherwise?

And finally, not only is it important to teach children the importance of generosity, and allow them to see you give, but also that our giving is motivated by Jesus, who said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). We have received generously from Him, and we in turn give generously to others.

Let's make an effort to visibly give in front of our kids, not to be boastful, but to teach. For we remember, "God loves a cheerful giver! (2 Cor. 9:7)

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Strengthen Faith

My Lord and my God,
You said that they are blessed who have not seen and yet believe.
Yet while you are so close to me,
I sometimes doubt your presence and refuse to believe unless I touch and see.
Strengthen my faith that you
are with me always as the way,
the truth, and the life.
Amen.

PARISH NEWS

World Mission Sunday Collection This Weekend

World Mission Sunday is a special moment of encounter with the Pope's missions throughout the world. It is a day for Catholics worldwide to recommit themselves through prayer and sacrifice to the Church mission. It is held the second to last Sunday every October.

On World Mission Sunday we are provided an opportunity to nurture and enrich over 1,000 local churches in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Island, and parts of Latin America and Eastern Europe, an area that covers more than half the territory of the globe. Through the work of these churches, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy.

Please support the work of the mission Church and make a generous gift on World Mission Sunday. Let us share the joy of the Gospel with fervent prayer and generous hearts. For more information, contact the World Missions Office at 920-272-8192, or email wmissions@gbdioc.org. Please place the envelope provided in the bulletin last weekend in the regular collection.

World Mission Sunday!
