Home Missions Collection-Our Own Needs: June 4 & 5

Next weekend we will have the Home Mission-Our Own Needs Collection. Please use the envelope provided in this bulletin and place your envelope in the regular collection basket. Checks payable to Corpus Christi Parish and please fill out the front of the envelope. You can give to one or more of the organizations. Black and Indian Missions exists to build Christian communities among the Native American, African American and Alaskan Native people in the US. The Catholic Communications Campaign connects people through the internet, social networks, television, radio and print to Christ. Half of these funds remain in our diocese. The Catholic University of America enables the next generation of Catholic leadership, both religious and lay. The Catholic Home Missions assists 40% of dioceses in the United States. The fragile financial situations, poverty, vast distances, difficult terrain, lack of priests significantly affects the mission diocese ability to offer basic pastoral needs. Please prayerfully consider donating -thank you!

Knights of Columbus Council 2478 of St. Bay

The Knights have selected the Joe Hurley Family to receive its Family of the Month award. Every month a family is selected from one of the four area parishes. Congratulations and God Bless the Joe Hurley Family!

Viewing of The Chosen-Season 1 Stella Maris Church

The Chosen is a show about the life of Jesus that brings the Gospel alive and allows us to see Jesus through the eyes of those who knew him. Join us in Sister Bay June 9th through Sept. 22nd on the 2nd & 4th Thursdays. Coffee and refreshments at 8:45am with the viewing 9-10am. Contact Stella Maris if you any questions at 920-868-3241.

Middle & High School Religious Education and Youth Ministry News

Loving God, we thank you for all who graduate from middle school, high school and college this time of the year. You have blessed them during their years in school with wisdom, friendships, and skills. You continue to challenge them to make this world a better place because of their education.

Help them to look forward to their next steps: continuing in their education or entering the work world. Particularly help those who are seeking employment to find a job suitable to their education.

Give them faith and a sense of purpose in their next steps. Show them how to serve others in effective ways.

And may they be always be aware in everything they do that they will find fulfillment in doing your will, that you will be with them always, and that you will bring to completion the good work you have begun in them. Amen We wrapped up our 2021-2022 school year and our team is taking a little break before we have some exciting opportunities for our youth this summer!

Parents of the class of 2023: if you missed the parent meeting on April 20th, please contact Sarah ASAP. Preparation officially begins on June 1st.

Gospel Meditation

The Ascension of the Lord

We have the ability to walk with joyful hope! Jesus, during his earthly ministry, pointed the way to God's kingdom. What is finally understood about God's kingdom is that it is filled with the glory of Christ! We are all in the process of being emptied into and becoming one with Christ. We are new creations, clothed in Christ, made in God's very image and likeness, and on this incredible journey of glory. The Ascension allows us to see this truth about ourselves and it enlightens our hearts. Christ who was most perfectly, vividly, and brilliantly transfigured before the very eyes of the disciples will be our destiny. Seeing only imperfectly now, we will see perfectly then. We will bask in the brilliance of understanding and truth. Christ is our destiny and our hope. Alleluia!

Believing this with our whole heart allows us to walk proudly through life's darkness. There is so much that can upset us and weigh us down. Sometimes, life's news can not only be challenging but downright discouraging. Our own lives can easily become unsettled and empty. We rely too much on the things of this world to please us and wonder how we lost our excitement, enthusiasm, wonder, and joy. Getting so caught up in superficialities and unnecessary dependencies, we lose our axis, anchor, and center. Today, we can claim it back again! We are reminded that it is not here that we find fulfillment but in the world of Christ yet to come. Jesus sent this promise of his Father upon his disciples, and he sends it to us as well.

Faith in God really has power to change things. In essence, all we have to do is believe in what God promises. God is ever close to us. He can even use what we see as the "useless scraps of life" to create "God moments" of inspiration and invitation. Then, even what is perceived as unpleasant, distasteful, or even hurtful can be transformed into an experience of joy. The Ascension of Christ becomes our reference point for self-knowledge. This firm anchor allows us to work through whatever comes our way and never be robbed of joy! ©LPi

Ascension Sunday

Risen Jesus,
help us to begin
living eternal life today.
Help us to know
your presence with us now, even as we anticipate
the joy of heaven.
Teach us to live this life
in a way that draws us into eternal life with you.
Amen.
