GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Most Holy Trinity

In creative celebration of the Most Holy Trinity, pray a rosary with creation. Find a quiet place outside or sit near a window. Contemplate the amazing Divine Gift that is before you. Admire it. Study it. Become one with it. Ask for the guidance of Brother St. Francis as you pray: "You, Holy Father, are King of heaven and earth. You are three in one, God above all gods. You are good, all good, and supreme good, Lord God, living and true. You are love. You are beauty. You are gentleness. You are joy. You are hope and happiness." Admire the wonder and majesty of God in all that is around you. Ask for wisdom and understanding.

Begin each decade with the Our Father and conclude with the Glory Be.

Decade one: Contemplate God the Father. As you pray each bead with a Hail Mary, get lost in the grandeur of all that you see. Imagine the thousands and thousands of years of history that is before you. Envision a time when nothing existed. What is nothing? Lift your eyes, heart, and soul to the power and magnificence of the universe, its expanse and its endlessness. You are one with it all. God's creative power.

Decade two: Contemplate God the Son. Behold the squirrels, birds, and critters all conducting life's business. They have heartbeats just like yours. Praying each bead, become one with the incarnate divine life that flows through you and flows with the smallest of creatures. It is holy innocence and blessed life. Tenderness. Compassion, Mercy. Reverence. All want to be held, have a home, and be loved. God in all things. Emmanuel.

Decade three: Contemplate God the Holy Spirit. The changing of times and seasons happens often without notice. It is all within God's care and guided. We all belong. Behold the living, dying, and rising to new life. You are one with all time from beginning into eternity.

Decade Four: Contemplate God as One.

Decade Five: Contemplate God as three. All different while remaining one. The divine dance is being danced before you. Rest in what you see. Become what you see. We are all connected: God of the Holy Trinity, creation, our brothers and sisters, the animals, and the plants.

The rosary you have prayed celebrates the circle of connectedness and the intimate relationship we share with all things: a glimpse of the Trinity. ©LPi

EDGE LIFE TEEN

Middle & High School Religious Education and Youth Ministry News

What does the summer look like as we are still in (but hopefully coming out of) a pandemic?

We aren't attending a mission trip. This was a hard choice, but when it was time to plan, prepare, and fundraise, the COVID numbers were very high, and our hospitals were overrun. As much as we'd love to go somewhere this summer, it just wasn't able to happen.

We WILL be around serving our local community with a variety of service projects. As you are aware, most of our high school and even a lot of middle school students work in the tourism industry during the summer. So, instead of doing a weeklong service project, we are going to offer many different options: afternoons and evenings. We hope at least every student will be able to help with one or two!

We'll also be around preparing our incoming seniors for Confirmation (we started on June 1) along with a time to pray and grow in relationship with our young Church! Parents, please check your email for updates!

Oh, and grad parties. If you want to see our Core Team and YM, go to grad parties; we'll be by the dessert table.

Parents of the class of 2023: if you missed the parent meeting on April 20th, please contact Sarah ASAP. Preparation officially began on June 1st.

Music educator organizes Ukraine benefit

BY SUZANNE WEISS | FOR THE COMPASS

MANITOWOC — When Stanislava Varshavski heard that Russia had begun invading her native Ukraine, she was in disbelief.

"I can't explain how I felt. I can say it was the shock of my life. The first three weeks, I couldn't eat, I couldn't sleep. I thought it was a nightmare," said Varshavski, director of music education for Holy Family Conservatory of Music in Manitowoc.

"I had relatives in Khar'kov (her birth city), and it was one of the first cities that got bombed. My former apartment building was hit with rockets two times," she said. As far as she knows, her friends and extended family are safe, but Varshavski remembers feeling helpless. "I didn't know what I should do," she said.

In March, the conservatory and the Manitowoc community worked together to gather medical supplies and donations for Ukraine. "I was so amazed by Americans, that so many people so many miles away cared. I was really touched," Varshavski said.

Spurred by continuing news of the invasion, the conservatory decided to organize a benefit concert for Ukraine, set for 2 p.m. on Sunday, May 15. The concert will feature professional musicians and various genres of music. "We are musicians here. I think the best way to help is to play music," said Varshavski.

All money raised is designated for Catholic Relief Services for Ukrainian refugee supplies and housing, said Sr. Carol Ann Gambsky, administrator of Holy Family Conservatory of Music, in an email.

FRANKLY, FRANCIS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Book of Job dramatically represents in an exemplary way what truly happens in life — that really heavy trials fall on a person, on a family, on a people, disproportionate trials in comparison to human lowliness and frailty. It often happens in life that "when it rains it pours," as the saying goes. And some people are overcome by an accumulation of evil that truly seems excessive and unjust. It is like this with many people.

We have all known people like this. We have been impressed by their cry, but we have also stood in admiration at the firmness of their faith and love in their silence. I am thinking of parents of children with serious disabilities, have you thought of the parents of children with serious disabilities? Their entire life... I am thinking also of those who live with a permanent illness, ... These situations are often aggravated by the scarcity of economic resources.

Compass announces publication, other changes

BY PATRICIA KASTEN | THE COMPASS

ALLOUEZ — Look forward to some changes coming to these pages.

And expect changes, not just on the pages of The Compass, but on its website at thecompassnews.org, its e-newsletter and in its production schedule, as well as the entire Office of Communications for the Diocese of Green Bay.

With this issue, The Compass begins the biweekly schedule it usually follows through summer and into September. However, because the Office of Communications of the Diocese of Green Bay is now in the process of restructuring, this will directly affect The Compass.

For the foreseeable future, the paper will continue to be printed on a biweekly basis. It will not return to weekly production in September.

The Compass' monthly e-newsletter will also continue — moving toward a biweekly schedule in September — as will many of the features readers have come to expect. These include Compass in the Classroom (during the school year), Sunday Scripture readings, the calendar of events, columns by Fr. John Girotti and Julianne Stanz, as well as the Foundations of Faith feature.

Our full story appears in the May 20 issue.

5 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

About English martyrs

BY PATRICIA KASTEN | THE COMPASS

- 1 England's Protestant Reformation began in 1534, when King Henry VIII declared himself head of the church there.
- 2 Many Catholics opposed the reforms and were martyred. They are the 40 Martyrs of England and Wales (Oct. 25). Hundreds more died between 1535 and 1670. May 4 is for their feast day.
- 3 Several martyrs have June feasts, including SS. John Fisher and Thomas More (June 22).
- 4 Seven Carthusian martyrs starved to death in June 1537, in Newgate Prison. They include Bl. Robert Salt and Bl. John Davy (June 6).
- 5 Thomas More's foster daughter, Margaret Clement, aided these Carthusians by smuggling food until the jailer, fearing his own safety, stopped her.

Easter celebration isn't over yet!

Hello, my young friends and Happy Easter.

KIDS' PAGE

Bishop David Ricken

Are you shaking your head and saying, "Happy Easter, Bishop? Easter was a couple weeks ago." This is true, but the Easter celebration, which is the center of our Christian faith, is so much more than a day. It is a season that lasts for 50 days.

From Easter Sunday through Pentecost Sunday, we celebrate and rejoice in Christ's victory over death as one joyful feast — or one "great Sunday." By His death, Christ freed us from sin; by His resurrection, He brought us the promise of new life, on earth and in Heaven. This is our belief and why we hold this season so sacred.

As we enter this month of June, we are still in the midst of Eastertide. This year, as we pray for peace throughout our world, especially in Ukraine, I encourage you and your family to hold Mary close. Think about saying a weekly rosary or recite the "Hail Mary" as part of your daily prayers.

Our diocese is blessed to be home to the National Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help, located just 25 minutes north of Green Bay in Champion, Wis. This sacred, peaceful Shrine is where the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to a young Belgian immigrant woman named Adele Brise over 160 years ago. It is a humble, quiet refuge, noble in simplicity, nestled amid the cornfields of the rural landscape.

The Shrine offers many opportunities for prayer, including a beautiful outdoor rosary walk, a chapel where daily Mass is offered and an apparition oratory which provides visitors a space for quiet prayer and reflection. I invite you and your family to plan a visit.

Throughout these weeks, as we continue to rejoice in the risen Christ, look also to his mother. As Jesus said to Peter at the foot of the cross, "She is your mother." She is our mother. Let us honor her. God bless you and your family.
