GOSPEL MEDITATION

*The Fourth Sunday of Lent
March 10, 2024*

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls "condemning the world." We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: "We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great." Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him" (Jn 3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation. How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

Fourth Sunday of Lent

God, you loved the world, and us in it, so completely that you sent your only Son in order that we can believe in your goodness and ours. Teach us to trust in your saving work, and draw us into the dying to self that allows us to receive your new life and Resurrection. Amen.

Online Giving

Corpus Christi Catholic Parish relies on the continued generosity from parishioners to support the growing need for parish support, increased expenses due to inflation, capital improvements, buildings and grounds, technology, prayer garden, and much more! Every donation and extra dollar helps our faith community to fulfill our Catholic vision of being Missionary Disciples of Jesus Christ. If you haven't done so already, prayerfully consider our online giving option called WESHARE. This is the easiest and most consistent way to support our parish community. Visit [www.ccp parish.net](http://www.ccp parish.net) and click on the 'Online Giving' option. Here you can simply set up an automated weekly contribution in replacement of weekend collections at Mass. If you're new to contributing to Corpus Christi or would like to receive parish envelopes for weekend collections, please contact the parish center at (920) 743-4716 or office@ccparish.net.
