From our Pastor

So many great saint feast days in October! How they helped me on my spiritual journey:

Saint Thérèse of Lisieux (October 1), St. Francis of Assisi (October 4), and St. Teresa of Avila (October 15). I remember reading "The Story of a Soul" by St. Thérèse, "The Perfect Joy of St. Francis" by Felix Timmermans, and the autobiography of St. Teresa of Avila. All contributed greatly to my spiritual awakening as a younger man.

St. Pope John XXIII (October 11) and St. Pope John Paul II (October 22) – Popes of our generation who inspired me and prepared the way of priesthood for me. The North American Martyrs (October 19). I spent a very soul-stirring day at their shrine while on a trip with my classmates to visit Archbishop Flynn in upstate New York.

The Guardian Angels (October 2) – I can only imagine what my angel has done for me. Our Lady of the Rosary (October 7) – I love the beads! Of course, there is my patron, St. Denis (October 9). St. Luke (October 18) – we've been working through his gospel at Sunday Mass this year. There are many more. If you are not being fed spiritually this month, you're not trying hard enough. Blessed October!

SVDP Respect Life Group

Praying and sidewalk counseling continues to make a difference in the life of women and their babies! 3 babies were saved as the result of ordinary people praying in front of local abortion clinics! Not only are the babies' lives spared, but the women now have support from the local pregnancy resource centers that are designed to help these women in need. Thank you Jesus, for your life-giving mercy.

There's still time to join in the 40 Days for Life Campaign which runs through November 3. We also have regular prayer warriors out on the sidewalk who would help get you started! Please call for more information: Kathy Freed at 763-425-5706 or Krista Cassidy at 763-210-8400. We can bring light to darkness!

I have heard more than one sponsor say that every Catholic should be a RCIA sponsor because it was such a positive experience. One female sponsor is needed.
