THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. - Lk 9:16

From Our Pastor

If things are going as planned, I am out of the country on pilgrimage, as you read this, with a group of high-school students. Fr. Zipp, Fr. Selenski, and a few of our staff members likely will be gone too, for parts of this coming week, with our teens at Extreme Faith Camp.

Note that I used the qualifier, "if things are going as planned." Travel lately has become less predictable and more prone to disruption. Maybe it's no coincidence that when we plan a "trip," we use the same word that we use when we stumble and fall on our faces.

John Steinbeck said, "People don't take trips, trips take people." It's best to imagine a journey as a person – a guide from God. Pray before you leave and along the way – but then surrender yourself to the journey and trust God's able guide. Don't get frustrated if there are delays, itinerary changes, or bad weather. God's guide can reveal to you things (about God, life, and yourself) you might not have been looking for – even and especially in the more difficult or unexpected moments.

God bless all your summer travels too. Let them be guided by God. Be good, contemplative journeyers. If you are, you will return home knowing that God has blessed you and brought you closer to your final home in heaven.

Please pray for those suffering with physical or mental illness:

Father of goodness and love, hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need. Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence. Show your mercy as you close wounds, cure illness, make broken bodies whole, and free downcast spirits. May these special people find lasting health and deliverance, and so join us in thanking you for all your gifts. We ask this through the Lord Jesus who healed those who believed. Amen.
