From Our Pastor

I thank God for the opportunity I was given over the summer to make a retreat in Paris, France. Two of the mornings I was there I spent praying at the Shrine of St. Vincent de Paul. Above the altar in the shrine is a reliquary that contains the body of St. Vincent. Be assured, I offered many prayers for all of you while I was there.

Throughout his life, St. Vincent offered his life in love in such diverse ways. There was one question that came to my heart as I was praying in the shrine – “Do I, and most people, truly even want to love?” Certainly, we all want to be loved. We might enjoy warm and fuzzy feelings. We might yearn for the euphoria of a new romance. We might enjoy tenderness and intimacy – as long as it’s on our terms and with someone who meets our standards.

But true love generally requires selflessness and sacrifice – especially when we don’t feel like it, when it’s not convenient, and for people to whom we might not be attracted.

Our parish feast day, the Feast of St. Vincent de Paul, is coming up on September 27. It would be a good spiritual exercise to begin your day by asking the question, “Do I truly want to love today or not?”

Watch, then, to see what God does to your heart.

Coffee & Company This Sunday

We will be hosting Coffee & Company gatherings of parishioners after all Sunday Masses.

Please join us in Regan Hall after Mass for good company and light refreshments.

St. Vincent de Paul BACK-TO-SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

Adoration for Vocations Holy Hour

This is a Holy Hour where we focus our prayer and time with Christ for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life as well as spiritual support for the existing vocations. Come join us as we “pray to the Lord of the harvest.”
