

From Our Pastor

God has blessed us with somebody new to pray for!

The Church of St. Vincent de Paul welcomes and spiritually embraces Todd VanderMay, our new Teaching Parish Seminarian. Todd is from Long Valley, South Dakota, and is studying for the Diocese of Rapid City.

For the next three years, as part of his formation at St. Paul Seminary, Todd will spend time at our parish getting some "behind-the-wheel" training and pastoral experience as he discerns a call to the priesthood.

We have been tasked with providing Todd with a Teaching Parish Committee. This will be a group of 8-12 people who will meet with him monthly during the school year to support, dialogue, pray, and reflect with him. God grant us willing souls. May God bless our parish, too, with more young people open to answering His call to the priesthood or consecrated religious life.

Everyone comes into the world with a vocation to discern. The choices in life may seem overwhelming but, if in the end, you haven't chosen Jesus, it doesn't matter what you do. Make us ready, Lord! We at St. Vincent de Paul seek to know and to follow Your holy will.
