

From Our Pastor

We have another seminarian staying with us for a couple weeks. It's part of the seminary's January-term program. It gives the men a break from the books and a taste of parish life.

The seminarian's name is Andy Renier. His life journey has led him from his home in Plymouth, up the ranks as an Eagle Scout, through Life Teen faith formation at Holy Name of Jesus, kicking and gliding his way along many cross-country ski trails, enrolled in studies and music programs at St. John's University, licensed as a public accountant, and into formation at St. Paul Seminary. Now – he's here!

We all get one precious journey through this life. We don't always know where it's leading, but if we pray and are open to God, if we have good will, if we spend time in the Scriptures and Sacraments and discern their patterns, if we strive to overcome sin, then God will keep us moving along paths of blessings. Even when we do stray at times from the path, we never get too far lost that God can't get us quickly back on the everlasting way. Welcome, Andy! God keep us in grace through all our journeys.

2nd Collection This Weekend

Our 2nd collection for January will be for Feed My Starving Children. Please use the designated 2nd Collection Envelope included in your envelope packets or mark your donation as 2nd Collection.
