From Our Pastor

Jewish people have an ancient custom. When their children finish a Torah lesson, they give them honey. It's a gesture that teaches the children that the Law of God is sweet. I like that! Honey is an ancient and biblical symbol. It communicates to the children a deep and lasting truth.

It's our modern practice that, when children accomplish something, we give them a high-five. This past week we celebrated First Confessions with the little children.

Often, when I raise my hand to give absolution to a child for the first time, the child will misinterpret the gesture and give me a celebratory high-five.

High-fives generally communicate – "Good job, you did it!" I like how honey better communicates – "Rejoice, God did it!"

We kick off Catholic Education Week on Monday with a Mass of the Holy Spirit at the Xcel Center in St. Paul.

Thousands of students from Catholic schools across the Archdiocese will gather with Archbishop Hebda for the Eucharist. That morning I will gaze upon a sea of young faces opening to prayer and say, "Rejoice, God did this!"

What a blessing it is. Bring the children to God. As they grow in grace, they see. Taking time with God is never drudgery. No place do we get a better deal. It is always perfectly sweet.

Catholic Schools Week Gratitude

There are about 6,000 Catholic schools in the United States with just over 1.6 million students enrolled. Thank you for being one in a million and believing in Catholic school education, whether you are a school parent or a parishioner.

The children at St. Vincent de Paul are brought up in partnership with their parents to be living disciples.

Our parish and school children are not meant to be like the rest of the world, influenced by society. They are meant instead to influence society with their faith, values, and love for God.

Our school is thriving with teacher retention, parent and community involvement, academic achievement, enrollment, and above all, knowledge of truth. Our guiding theme this year "Trust in the Lord with All Your Heart."

Catholic Schools Week is a terrific time to pause and give thanks to God for the gift of Catholic education through our prayers.

Please continue to pray for the efforts and success of our beloved Catholic school, and we will pray for you, our beloved parishioners. Thank you for all the ways you support us.

Maggie Dawson, Principal of SVDP Catholic School

Rome PILGRIMAGE

You are invited to join Fr. Zehren on a pilgrimage to Rome. The dates for the pilgrimage are
May 29-June 8, 2024.

This pilgrimage is designed for a small group of 28 participants.

Fr. Zehren is joining friends in a visit to see a college student who is studying there – and they are looking for a few more fellow pilgrims to fill out the group.

In Rome, you will enjoy a tour of the Vatican and celebrate Mass with Fr. Zehren at all the Major Basilicas.

There will be a visit to The Three Fountains Outside the Walls where
St. Paul was imprisoned and martyred.

Visits to the Colosseum and the Roman Forum are also included.

The pilgrimage will include a lot of free time – with limited meals provided — to allow people to wander, explore, sample, and fully enjoy Rome at their own leisure. The boutique hotel at which we will be staying is within easy walking distance to St. Peter's and the Vatican. For a detailed itinerary, and to secure your spot, visit:
