4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God. - Jn 3:20-21

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

From Our Pastor

I didn't like the photo they took of me at the DMV for my driver's license. I looked sullen and grumpy. I decided not to do a retake though. I figured that's probably how I would look if the police ever pulled me over anyhow.

Most people dislike most photos of themselves. The image doesn't match how they see themselves or want to see themselves. Interestingly, most people think they look better in a mirror than they do in photos. Maybe that's because in the mirror we see the reverse, or an inverted reflection, of what we are.

Lent invites us to imagine an inverted, or converted, image of ourselves. Because of sin, the divine image in which we have been created has been disfigured. By overcoming our sins and bad inclinations, we better see our more authentic selves.

We like what we see in ourselves more – and we grow to be in deeper peace with ourselves.

Lent also invites us to reflect on how God sees us – with compassion and a loving gaze that longs for only the best for us. Take advantage of the great beauty secrets of Lent.

Become beautiful from the inside out.

Be the divine image that God created you to be in Christ.

The deadline for the March 17
bulletin is Monday at Noon.
We will have an early deadline on Friday at Noon for March 24.

8 MILLION MEALS!

HIGHLIGHT OF THE WEEK

8th Annual Northwest Metro MobilePack

This year 1,320 volunteers attended the Northwest Metro MobilePack that was hosted at St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church! Together we successfully surpassed our goal and packed 281,016 meals!! More importantly, 770 children will be fed for an ENTIRE YEAR!

Thank you to all who donated funds, packed at the event, and/or prayed for our success! St. Vincent's donated a total of $10,000, which came from our second collection and charity fund. Thank you for your generosity and support over the past eight years!

This year marks our
EIGHT MILLIONTH meal packed!

This event is only possible because churches in the Northwest Metro come together in a powerful way to serve those most in need.

Thank you!

The dates for the pilgrimage are
May 29-June 8, 2024.

Rome
PILGRIMAGE

This pilgrimage is designed for a small group of 28 participants. Fr. Zehren is joining friends in a visit to see a college student who is studying there – and they are looking for a few more fellow pilgrims to fill out the group. In Rome, you will enjoy a tour of the Vatican and celebrate Mass with Fr. Zehren at all the Major Basilicas. There will be a visit to The Three Fountains Outside the Walls where St. Paul was imprisoned and martyred. Visits to the Colosseum and the Roman Forum are also included.

The pilgrimage will include a lot of free time – with limited meals provided – to allow people to wander, explore, sample, and fully enjoy Rome at their own leisure. The boutique hotel at which we will be staying is within easy walking distance to St. Peter's and the Vatican. For a detailed itinerary, and to secure your spot, visit: www.stcecilia.co/tours

From our Resident Seminararian

As part of my ongoing formation towards the priesthood the Archdiocese asks my classmates and me to attend the Institute of Priestly Formation (IPF) Summer Program for Seminararians. This is an eight-week long program hosted at Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska, where seminararians are immersed in spiritual direction, an eight-day silent retreat, and classes on prayer and priestly identity.

My time at IPF will provide an excellent foundation for my spiritual and human formation, complement my formal studies at the St. Paul Seminary and assist me to grow deeper in my love for Jesus Christ and in my trust in God's plan for me.

The Archdiocese covers 50% of the cost of the program and asks each seminararian attending IPF to cover the other half, which for me is $5,000. I humbly ask for your prayers as I work towards fundraising the necessary funds. I also ask that you might consider providing a donation that would support me attending the IPF Summer Program for Seminararians.

Gifts may be made online:

Gifts may be made by check:

Please place my name on the check memo line and address to:
