PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

From Our Pastor

On Holy Thursday, March 28, I will be going to the Cathedral of St. Paul for the annual Chrism Mass for our Archdiocese. As Cardinal Seán O'Malley preached one year at the Chrism Mass for the Archdiocese of Boston, "If someone asks what the Chrism Mass means for us, we might say that it's a time when we gather for the annual oil change and tune up."

At the Chrism Mass the Archbishop will bless all the oil, also called chrism, that will be used throughout our Archdiocese for the whole year – for baptisms, confirmations, anointing of the sick, ordinations, and consecrating new church buildings and altars.

It is a Mass that will help us to "tune up" for the Sacred Triduum. The Triduum is one celebration spanning the three days – Holy Thursday with the Washing of Feet, Good Friday with Veneration of the Cross, and Holy Saturday with the Blessing of the Easter Fire – that leads us to the celebration of Easter.

Join us at church for this sacred time. Smell the oil. Kiss the Cross. Abide with Jesus. Light a candle from the Easter fire. These three days mean everything to us.

They reveal to us the Sacraments. They reveal to us answers to our hearts' deepest questions. They reveal to us the truth of who we are. They reveal to us a Love that we are lost without.

The Divine Mercy Novena Begins This Friday

In a private revelation, as told in the Diary of St. Faustina, Jesus asked that Divine Mercy Sunday be preceded by a Novena to The Divine Mercy.

A Novena is nine days of prayer in preparation for a feast. In the case of the Novena to The Divine Mercy, we pray the Chaplet of The Divine Mercy each day for a specific intention. This year, Divine Mercy Sunday falls on April 7.

Our Lord told St. Faustina,

"I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw ... strength and refreshment and whatever grace they need in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death" (Diary, 1209).

You can learn more at:

thedivinemercy.org

Your Divine Mercy Sunday Opportunity to Receive God's Mercy

The Decree of Indulgence for Divine Mercy Sunday grants a plenary or full indulgence to those who satisfy certain conditions established by the Church and a partial (incomplete) indulgence to those who fulfill some, but not all, of the conditions. See the article on pg. 5 for special Divine Mercy services in our area.

A plenary indulgence means that by the merits of Jesus Christ, the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, the full remission of the temporal punishment due to sacramentally forgiven sins is obtained.

The person becomes as if just baptized, and would fly immediately to heaven if he died in that instant.

A partial indulgence means that a portion of the temporal punishment due to forgiven sin is remitted. Partial indulgences are received either by doing some act to which a partial indulgence is attached (e.g. praying a partially indulgenced prayer), or by the incomplete fulfillment of the conditions attached to a plenary indulgence.

To demonstrate your desire to receive this mercy, the basic requirements are:

"a plenary indulgence is granted under the usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer for the intentions of Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on the Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday), in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!)"

Read the full details on the Vatican's web site:

The Divine Mercy Novena beginning on Good Friday

If you're not familiar with how to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet, visit this web page:

thedivinemercy.org/message/devotions/pray-the-chaplet

Praying the Chaplet together is a wonderful family activity that takes less than 10 minutes/day. During the Solemn Novena leading up to Divine Mercy Sunday, the Chaplet should be offered each day for the day's intentions. The souls prayed for on each day are:

DAY 1 (Good Friday)

All mankind, especially sinners

DAY 2 (Holy Saturday)

The souls of priests and religious

DAY 3 (Easter Sunday)

All devout and faithful souls

DAY 4 (Easter Monday)

Those who do not believe in Jesus and those who do not yet know Him

DAY 5 (Easter Tuesday)

The souls of separated brethren

DAY 6 (Easter Wednesday)

The meek and humble souls and the souls of children

DAY 7 (Easter Thursday)

The souls who especially venerate and glorify Jesus' mercy

DAY 8 (Easter Friday)

The souls who are detained in purgatory

DAY 9 (Easter Saturday)

The souls who have become lukewarm
