

A Meditation on this Week's Gospel

Jesus says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely.

But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

Needed on July 28 -31 from 9 AM – 2 PM

We have over 160 youth signed up for Camp Vinny! WOW!

This truly exceeded our expectations for our first year!

We are looking for adult volunteers to join us in ministering to the kids at Camp Vinny to ensure that our First Annual Camp Vinny is a HUGE success! If so, sign up to volunteer online at saintvdp.org. Virtus training will be required to volunteer.

Camp Vinny also has an opening for an RN. This is a stipend position! Though we would love the same RN for the whole camp, we are open to breaking up the week. Please contact Billy at Billyutecht@saintvdp.com if you are interested or have questions.

Book Club This Thursday

Thursday, July 10 from 9:30—10:30 AM in the Community Room

We will be discussing Born A Crime by Trevor Noah.

“Trevor Noah’s unlikely path from apartheid South Africa to the desk of The Daily Show began with a criminal act: his birth. Trevor was born to a white Swiss father and a black Xhosa mother at a time when such a union was punishable by five years in prison. Living proof of his parents’ indiscretion, Trevor was kept mostly indoors for the earliest years of his life, bound by the extreme and often absurd measures his mother took to hide him from a government that could, at any moment, steal him away. Finally liberated by the end of South Africa’s tyrannical white rule, Trevor and his mother set forth on a grand adventure, living openly and freely and embracing the opportunities won by a centuries-long struggle.”

We meet the second Thursday of each month. On August 14 we will discuss Cane River by Lalita Tademy. All are invited!

Upcoming Roof Repairs

Thanks to the support of our parishioners, we are poised to begin the next phase of our roof replacement at a projected cost of $350,000. All staging will be done in the back of the school so some parking may be restricted on the North side of the building.
