18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But God said to him, ‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’ Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.”
- Lk 12:20-21

A Word from Fr. Mike

Sunshine, Storm Clouds, and a Double Rainbow

This past weekend, I cashed in my one and only scheduled summer getaway—a glorious retreat with some great friends at their cabin in Millerville, just west of Alexandria. I'd been looking forward to it for months, and thankfully, it did not disappoint. Think sunshine, lazy lakeside lounging, competitive-yet-friendly badminton matches, scratch Bloody Marys, Zorbaz pizza, and a healthy amount of laughter that fills the soul and works the abs. I returned with a full heart, a tired body, and probably a couple of extra pounds as proof that fun was, indeed, had.

The drive home Sunday night was its own kind of adventure. Armed with a sugar-free Red Bull and country music loud enough to keep both me and passing wildlife awake, I looked up and saw one of the strangest, most beautiful skies I've ever witnessed. Behind me: a cotton-candy sunset of pink and orange. Ahead of me: ominous, pitch-black clouds lit up with dramatic lightning. And right over the top of me? A double rainbow. I'm not kidding. Stillness and beauty in the rearview mirror, danger and drama on the horizon, and a brilliant, hopeful arc above me. It was totally bizarre.

But it got me pondering...

Because isn't that just life? A strange, swirling mix of sunshine and storm clouds, joy and sorrow, comfort and chaos—all in the same sky. We all want to live in the sunset moments: the boat rides, the laughter, the good food, the good friends. But the truth is, storms are part of the package. We don't get one without the other.

And yet, through it all, God is God. He is present in the joy and in the trial. He's not only the God of peace and still water, but also of wild skies and messy middle moments. Each season—whether filled with light or lightning—shapes us, sharpens us, draws us closer to Him. So we give thanks when the sun is shining, and we make acts of faith when the skies turn black.

And somehow, through it all, God paints rainbows.

Wherever you are in your journey this week—lounging in the sun or trudging through the storm—know that His grace arches over it all.

2nd Collection Next Weekend

Our second collection for August will support members within our parish who are currently working full-time in apostolic mission work. This would include mission organizations like SPO, FOCUS, NET and others.

The collection will contribute to their efforts to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with young people and support their personal financial needs as they respond to God's call to share the Good News!

Please use your designated 2nd Collection Envelope included in your envelope packets or mark your donation as 2nd Collection.

Temperament God Gave You (coming in January 2026)

"Cana has brought me closer to God through not only the Trainings (learning new and exciting ways to grow my faith) but through my parish. I have been able to get to know many women in this journey. As I have gone through each week, there are more and more connecting the dot moments. (Eg. Rosary in a Year) I find I pray more often and with more purpose."

Created & Called Year 1 Participant

"Cana has been a tremendous blessing for our family this year. It has helped my wife and I find time to pray together and have meaningful communication about our family life and faith journey. It has also helped us build relationships with people at our parish. Now, when we attend Mass, we see familiar people to talk with and call friends."
