A Meditation on this Week's Gospel

What Did You Expect?

A Gospel Reflection by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman, ©LPi

Moms have a lot of jobs, and it's usually the case that none of them pay very well.

My work as a chef? Zero compensation, and my clientele are very rarely pleased with my efforts. My role as a teacher, a maid, a chauffeur, a therapist — same deal. Ironically, these jobs consume so much of my time that I am constricted in my work as a writer — the only sphere where I do actually garner any earnings.

It is so easy to grumble about all of this, and I do it all the time. Because despite the fact that I know better, I expect repayment for my good deeds. Deep in my soul, I expect it.

That's a huge problem.

In my defense, I don't think this is a very uncommon thing. I think, if we're being really honest, we all expect "payment" for being a good person. We want God to give us what we ask. We want people to treat us a certain way. We want our day to go smoothly. We expect these things as a matter of course; we feel entitled to them, and we become grumpy when we are denied them. I worked so hard. I gave so much. What was it all even for?

But what if we expected absolutely nothing?

When you hold a banquet, Jesus said, invite those who cannot return the favor. Give not just without the expectation of repayment, but without the possibility of it.

Think about that for a minute. What does that even look like — no possibility of payment?

I know what that looks like in my own life. It's giving more to the literal poor, yes, but it's also giving more — and more happily, more lovingly — when I cook and clean and drive and write and console. It's not lamenting that no one appreciates me — it's actually hoping no one does.

It's learning to love the lowest place at the table. Because in the lowest place, we are closest to God.

Special Collection for Gaza

Look for Designated Envelopes at our Collection Boxes near each Entrance

Archbishop Hebda is asking all parishes of the archdiocese to join in a nationwide special appeal for humanitarian relief and pastoral support in Gaza. Funds from this special appeal will support the efforts of Catholic Relief Services and the Catholic Near East Welfare Association. Both organizations are already well-established with the Catholic Church in the region to allow them to respond quickly and efficiently.

Please make checks out to St. Vincent to Paul Parish.

We celebrated the end of Camp Vinny with an all-family picnic and massive water fight that was started off by the Osseo Fighter Fighters spraying down the campers! Camp Vinny was a grace-filled week of Faith, Fun, and Fellowship! Mark your calendars to join us next year: July 27-30, 2026!

Labor Day Mass

Monday, September 1 at 9 AM, please join us for Labor Day Mass.

Lord on this Labor Day, we thank you for the blessing of work. We ask for strength to complete each day, and for rest when we are weary.

We ask your guidance for those seeking employment, and ask that you be with those whose faces we might never see but who work tirelessly each day for the good of us all. Amen.
