A Word from Fr. Mike

Two weeks ago, I had the privilege of preaching at all four of our weekend Masses with a message on generosity—that beautiful virtue of giving freely and joyfully of one's time, talent, and treasure. Generosity imitates God's own love; it's the habit of sharing what we've been given by the Giver of all good gifts, to build His Kingdom, to help others, and to make our world more just and compassionate.

It's a virtue that calls us to selflessness, humility, and joy—remember, "God loves a cheerful giver!" (2 Corinthians 9:7)

It's not about what we lose by giving, but what we gain: freedom from the grip of greed and the joy that comes from blessing others.

This weekend, you'll see our 2025 Annual Report insert, which shares a snapshot of our parish's financial life.

Reading it, I'm filled with gratitude for the many ways you continue to live out that virtue of generosity—through your gifts of time, talent, and treasure—that make Saint Vincent de Paul such a vibrant, faith-filled community.

Your generosity keeps our mission alive and moving!

And speaking of generosity, I want to pause for a personal word of thanks. Over the past few weeks, since the passing of my father, I have been overwhelmed (in the best possible way) by your kindness—your cards, prayers, condolences, and words of comfort. I think the post office had to hire a part-time employee just to handle the sympathy mail coming my way! Truly, your outpouring of care has been an incredible gift to me. While I wish I could thank each of you personally, please know that your gestures have meant the world.

My dad was a wonderful man—faithful, generous, and joyful. He gave me two of life's greatest gifts: life and faith. And one of his defining virtues was generosity. He was generous beyond all telling. He loved helping others, whether it was supporting his parish, quietly slipping "a little walking-around money" into your hand as you left the house, or surprising someone with a new set of tires because, well, he'd found a deal too good to pass up. (That was kind of his thing!) He simply loved blessing others with whatever he could offer—and in that, he discovered the true cheerfulness of giving.

May that same joy inspire us all: to give generously, to live gratefully, and to keep building up the Kingdom of God here at Saint Vincent de Paul.

Respect Life Month

Every Wednesday in October at 4:45 PM, the Respect Life Group will lead a Rosary prior to the evening Mass.

"The witness of our Blessed Mother [in the Gospel account of her visit to her pregnant cousin, Elizabeth,] invites us to become more aware of the needs of pregnant and parenting moms in our own parishes and communities. ...Mary's witness is an invitation to step out in love and compassion. It is a summons to make haste to help vulnerable women who may be isolated and alone."
