A Word from Fr. Mike

Happy belated Thanksgiving! Full disclosure, I'm still getting used to how time works when it comes to early bulletin deadlines—I wrote this one before the holiday, but realized that you will be reading it at a post-food coma date!

Thanksgiving might just be my favorite day of the year. Believe it or not, even as a priest (if we momentarily set aside theological significance) there's just no holiday I look forward to more than Thanksgiving. I grew up with such rich memories of this day: a crackling fire in the fireplace, watching the Detroit Lions doing what they do best (heroically losing), backyard football with the cousins, turkey, pie, stuffing (the GOAT of side dishes), and of course, the non-negotiable post-meal nap. Plus—just being honest—it's the rare major holiday that doesn't require more work for us priests! So, yes, Thanksgiving has held the #1 ranking for quite some time in my book.

But beneath the mashed potatoes and Macy's parade balloons lies something profoundly Christian: gratitude. It is not just good manners, nor is it Hallmark-card positivity. Gratitude is one of the most foundational practices of the spiritual life. How easy it is for us to mentally orbit around the things that are wrong with the world: stress, problems, disappointments, unanswered prayers, unrealized hopes—and as a result, we can too easily forget how blessed we actually are... every single day!

Here's the simple truth: the grateful person is the joyful person.

Not the person with the easiest life. Not the wealthiest or most successful. Gratitude is not a personality type — it's a chosen lens.

And our gratitude isn't generic or vague. It's not optimism floating in the universe. Gratitude has a recipient:
God, the giver of all that is good.

Fun fact: Did you know that the word Eucharist literally comes from the Greek word meaning "thanksgiving"? Every time we come to Mass, every time we approach the altar, we are stepping into the deepest, truest act of thanksgiving on earth. Even if life feels heavy... even if we're carrying grief, stress, uncertainty, or exhaustion... we receive Jesus — Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity — offered and given for us. And that alone is enough to ignite gratitude.

St. Paul tells us to "give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Thess 5:18). The saints understood this better than anyone — there are no ungrateful saints. Zero. The path to holiness is first paved with "Thank You, Lord."

Here are a few saintly reminders worth taping to the fridge, setting as a phone wallpaper, or memorizing while the pumpkin pie is baking:

- St. Teresa of Avila: "In all created things discern the providence and wisdom of God, and in all things give Him thanks."
- St. Ambrose: "No duty is more urgent than that of returning thanks."
- St. Teresa of Calcutta: "The best way to show my gratitude to God is to accept everything, even my problems, with joy."

- St. John Paul II: "Remember the past with gratitude. Live the present with enthusiasm. Look forward to the future with confidence."
- St. Therese of Lisieux: "Jesus does not demand great actions from us but simply surrender and gratitude."
- Blessed Solanus Casey: "Thank God ahead of time."
- St. Augustine: "Ingratitude is the mother of all vices."

So here's my invitation: this holiday season, pick one quote that resonates, adopt it as your mantra, and let it shape your outlook. Let a moment at Mass, a laugh with family, a quiet drive home, or even that perfect bite of pecan pie become a holy moment of gratitude. Gratitude is not about having everything, but about recognizing that in Christ, we lack nothing that truly matters. Happy (belated) Thanksgiving!

Growing Closer to Christ During Advent

A beautiful way to prepare your heart for an authentic celebration of Christmas is to make room for Christ during this season. And the best way to do this is by spending some time with him in the Adoration Chapel. Give him time to give you all the gifts he has for you and to give him praise and thanksgiving for all the love he has for us. Make Christ the center of your life this Advent.

SVDP Giving Tree

One of the best feelings you can experience this holiday season is knowing that you helped someone else have a wonderful Christmas. Families who need help with Christmas gifts this year have ornaments placed on the Giving Trees in the church. Please consider taking ornaments and fulfilling someone's Christmas wish.

Take an ornament and bring back a wrapped present (unless it says 'unwrapped') with the ornament taped to it by Sunday, December 7 at Noon.

Please buy the suggested gift or as close to it as possible, and include a gift receipt (including gift cards).

If for some reason you are not able to get the gift listed, or something close to it, please return the ornament and hang it back on the Giving Tree.

If you do not care to go shopping, we can help! Just put your donation in an envelope marked "The Giving Tree" and we will do the shopping for you.

Any gifts returned Monday-Friday should be brought to the parish office.

Email svgivingtree@hotmail.com with any questions.

Thank you so much for your support.
Have a great holiday season!
