Meditation on this Week's Gospel

A Gospel Reflection by Father John Muir, ©LPi

"Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.'" (John 20:27)

In my early 20s, I volunteered at a parish youth group. I witnessed teens encountering Jesus with a fresh, romantic wonder that reminded me of my own teenage conversion. But something had changed in me. I was quietly jaded and cynical. When teens shared stories of encountering Christ, I'd want to sarcastically murmur, "Well, good for you."

I had grown suspicious of the zeal I once knew.

Then we brought the group on a pilgrimage. I was standing in an old church in France, ignoring a long-winded tour guide.

I found myself before a crucifix. In that moment, I heard something, not audibly, but unmistakably in my heart: "I came to be your friend... and you wish to be my enemy? Why do you stand far from me? I suffer gladly for you. I was pierced for you. Why do you run from me?" My heart opened. I saw how cold and cynical I had become. But Jesus had not given up on me. He had returned, and his mercy broke through.

So I can relate to the scoffing — and transformation — of Thomas when the Risen Jesus presents his wounds for inspection. Thomas is not simply doubting; he is guarded, suspicious, even cynical. But Jesus comes to him. No lecture. Just understanding and mercy. He invites Thomas to touch his wounds.

This burns away his cynicism like the morning mist.

Divine Mercy Challenge: This week, rejoice with someone who is newly alive in faith. If your own heart has grown skeptical or tired, ask Jesus to help you. He will.

Love thy neighbor and move to the middle!

We have a problem at some of our Masses... and it's a good problem to have.

We have so many attending some Masses (especially at 9 AM & 11 AM) that a number of people are stuck in the back of the Church because they are having trouble seeing open seating in the main church area.

Please consider moving to the middle of the pew, especially when you notice that the church is full.

We understand that some people must sit at the end of the pew due to medical needs or if they might need to leave during Mass with a child or to assist in the service.

If that's the case for you, please keep an eye out for people arriving after you, and wave them forward if you see that there is room for them in your pew.

Video Series on the Virgin Mary

Thursdays from 8:30-9:30 AM in the Community Room

Join us for an uplifting video series from Formed each Thursday this spring. The series is free and open to all.

We will meet for an hour in the Community Room after morning Mass for the video and discussion. Following the interpretive pattern of the authors of Scripture and the Fathers of the Church, "The Bible and the Virgin Mary" examines the role of Mary in salvation history. Through a method called typology (see Catechism 128-130) we'll study Mary's role as the New Eve, the Ark of the New Covenant, and the Queen Mother. This study also examines Catholic doctrine regarding the Blessed Virgin, answering common questions along the way.

"The Bible and the Virgin Mary" is a video series based on the work of Biblical scholar Dr. Scott Hahn. Matthew Leonard, the presenter, is an internationally known speaker and author.

Thursday Evening Series

Thursdays from 6:30-8 PM in the West Mtg Room

On April 16 we'll start our next series called "Symbolon: The Faith of the Church." This 2024 addition to the renowned Symbolon video portfolio focuses on understanding the Creed. Come join us this spring for viewing and discussing this weekly series. The series is free and open to all.
