

Meditation on this Week's Gospel

A Reflection by Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorma, ©LPi

Receiving

I receive a lot of junk mail. I'm on a bunch of people's asking-for-money lists, and so were the people who owned this house before me, and when you put it all together, it results in quite the pile of paper accumulating on my counter.

I leave it there because, while I have received this mail, I don't want to receive it. Do you see the difference? To really receive someone or something, you have to look at it, assess it, make space for it. Accept it. Decide it will have a place in your home or your life or whatever, and give it that place.

It's what the righteous woman did with Elisha. She received him.

She had a room all ready, waiting for him,
even when he wasn't there.

But I refuse to receive the junk mail. I don't have space for it, in my head or on my counter, so after a day or two, I just throw it away without looking through it.

"Whoever receives me receives the one who sent me,"
Jesus tells us in the Gospel of Matthew.

But what does that mean, exactly?

It's easy to receive Jesus, or at least to receive the Jesus presented to us by modern imagination — that laidback hippie who lets anyone sit at his table, no questions asked. But it's harder to receive the Christ, God the Son, who is consubstantial with God the Father who sent him.

Ah, yes, God the Father — maybe you've heard of Him?
He's the one from the Old Testament who says and does a bunch of things that make modern people uncomfortable.

That's a little more of a challenge, isn't it? Takes a little bit more thought. A little more assessment. A little more making-space.

Can we do it? Well, we have to find a way. Because for the record, laidback hippie Jesus doesn't exist. And Old Testament God makes a lot of sense, if you give Him a little thought.

If you make a little space.

So make the space. Receive.

NET Missionaries from Our Parish

Every year, passionately Catholic young adults serve on NET Ministries retreat teams and travel, proclaiming the Gospel to young people. They give talks, lead small groups, share their personal testimonies, and pray with thousands of young people each year, all to share the love of Jesus Christ. We have two parishioners who just graduated high school and have decided to serve with NET Ministries.

Samara Tietz

I just graduated high school from Chesterton Academy and am now preparing to begin my 9-month-long mission year through NET Ministries! I decided to become a NET missionary because I have a passion for teaching others about the love of Jesus and want to make more disciples of the Lord. I specifically chose NET because it allows each team to travel to multiple different churches and schools so that we can share the love of Christ to a great number of people. If you would like to help support my mission you are able to give at <https://give.netusa.org/samaratietz> and if you have any questions feel free to reach out to me at samara.tietz27@gmail.com. Thank you so much! God bless!

Michael Newman

I just recently graduated high school and have decided that God has been calling me to serve as a missionary with NET in Ireland! It's truly a blessing to be able to go and spread the word of Christ and really teach youth of His love. I will serve with NET for a year and I look forward to leading retreats and meeting new people but most especially bringing those I meet closer to God. If you would like to donate to my mission or have any questions about my mission year feel free to reach me at newmanmichael598@gmail.com.

Thank you! Here is the link to donate online:
