FATHER'S CORNER

Father José

Today's first reading is beautiful. It explains the qualities of a good wife and more so of a good woman. Unfortunately for some people, this reading would put women in a very limited role. Today's women are not staying home to spindle and set the table for dinner. There are many women who are in the workforce, which is good. However, traditional roles should not be diminished or ignored and more so be seen as demeaning. Women who stay home are as hard workers as those who work outside the home. Let no one take offense at the first reading for it highlights the beauty and hard work of women. At first this reading seems disconnected from the other readings, but it is really related to all the other readings, which are about the end of times. The message is simple: work hard whether woman or man until the end of times. The second reading says the end of times will come like the pains of labor. A total surprise for those who waste their lives in trivial pursuits. The end of times (or more precise the Second Coming of the Lord) will come, and many (if not the majority) will be caught unaware. Some will be just plain lazy in their lives without any motivation to work for their salvation. Some certainly will do something with their lives but something bad, engaging in sinful actions and thus they will be addressed as wicked. All of them at the Second Coming they will be cast out to the dark and there will be wailing and grinding of teeth, a just punishment. The second reading gives a very good advice: stay sober and alert and it can be added to be active, work hard, and do good for others. The gospel reading talks about the parable of the talents. It is often associated with a skill or a gift to be put into the service of the community. This again ties in with the other readings, while waiting for the Second Coming use natural talents to enhance and improve the community of God. Do good to the community by being a faithful servant until the end, then a reward for the just will be given, namely sharing in the Master's joy for all eternity. The parable of the talent it cannot be forgotten really speaks of monetary value. A talent was worth a lot of money...almost a year's salary. Ten talents was a lot of money entrusted but even one was significant. All this explanation is to say God has entrusted much, let's not squander (or worse bury) what God has intended to be used in the community. Women have special talents pertaining to them, men have their own talents too. Whether woman or man, all are called to use what God has given for the betterment of the church as all actively await the arrival of the Lord.

LA ESQUINA DEL PADRE

Padre José

La primera lectura de hoy es hermosa. Explica las cualidades de una buena esposa y más aún de una buena mujer. Desafortunadamente para algunas personas, esta lectura colocaría a las mujeres en un papel muy limitado. Las mujeres de hoy no se quedan en casa cociendo y poniendo la mesa para la cena. Hay muchas mujeres en el campo laboral, lo cual es bueno. Sin embargo, los roles tradicionales no deben disminuirse ni ignorarse y, más aún, considerarse degradantes. Las mujeres que se quedan en casa son tan trabajadoras como las que trabajan fuera de casa. Que nadie se ofenda por la primera lectura porque resalta la belleza y el trabajo duro de las mujeres. Al principio esta lectura parece desconectada de las otras lecturas, pero en realidad está relacionada con todas las demás lecturas, que se trata sobre el fin de los tiempos. El mensaje es simple: trabaja duro seas mujer u hombre hasta el fin de los tiempos. La segunda lectura dice que el fin de los tiempos vendrá como los dolores de parto. Una sorpresa total para quienes desperdician su vida en actividades triviales. El fin de los tiempos (o más precisamente la Segunda Venida del Señor) llegará, y muchos (si no la mayoría) serán tomados desprevenidos. Algunos serán simplemente perezosos en sus vidas sin ninguna motivación para trabajar por su salvación. Algunos ciertamente harán algo con sus vidas, pero algo malo, participando en acciones pecaminosas y, por lo tanto, serán tratados como malvados. Todos ellos en la Segunda Venida serán arrojados a la oscuridad y habrá llanto y rechinar de dientes, un castigo justo. La segunda lectura da un muy buen consejo: manténgase sobrio y alerta y se le puede agregar estar activo, trabajar duro y hacer el bien a los demás. La lectura del evangelio habla de la parábola de los talentos. A menudo se asocia con una habilidad o un don que se debe poner al servicio de la comunidad. Esto nuevamente se relaciona con las otras lecturas, mientras se espera la Segunda Venida use sus talentos naturales para realizar y mejorar la comunidad de Dios. Haz el bien a la comunidad siendo una servidora fiel hasta el final, entonces se dará la recompensa a los justos, es decir, compartir la alegría del Maestro por toda la eternidad. La parábola del talento no se puede olvidar habla realmente de valor monetario. Un talento valía mucho dinero... casi el salario de un año. Diez talentos era mucho dinero confiado, pero incluso uno era significativo. Toda esta explicación es para decir que Dios nos ha confiado mucho, no desperdiciemos (o peor aún, enterraremos) lo que Dios ha querido que se use en la comunidad. Las mujeres tienen talentos especiales, los hombres también tienen sus propios talentos. Ya sea mujer u hombre, todos están llamados a usar lo que Dios ha dado para el mejoramiento de la iglesia mientras todos esperan activamente la llegada del Señor.

Diocese of Boise Joins National Eucharistic Procession!

From May 27th to May 31st, 2024, the Diocese of Boise will take part in the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage, hosting a dozen young adults as they process with the Blessed Sacrament on their way to the Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis in July. These four national teams embark on their cross-country pilgrimage on Pentecost Sunday, May 19, 2024. Along the way, they will stop at parishes to pray, process, and gather, unified around the Blessed Sacrament. This unprecedented opportunity allows the faithful in Idaho to join with one of the largest Eucharistic pilgrimages in history, as part of the National Eucharistic Revival sponsored by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

On May 27th, Bishop Peter will meet Bishop Cary of the Diocese of Baker on the border between Oregon and Idaho, where they will solemnly transfer the Blessed Sacrament to our diocese. The Eucharistic procession will continue across the southern portion of the state before it crosses the border into Utah. The national team will make four major stops in our diocese: Corpus Christi in Fruitland; the Cathedral of St. John in Boise; St. Edward's in Twin Falls; and Holy Spirit Catholic Community in Pocatello.

Save the date and plan to pray, process and be part of this historic event! More information to come on ways in which all communities will be able to participate.
