FATHER JULIO REFLECTION

Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen. (Heb 11: 1).

The dictionary defines faith as "strong belief in God or in the doctrines of a religion, based on spiritual apprehension rather than proof," but this is not Christian faith. Faith, as we see in our second reading is the act by which we entrust ourselves to God. We read, "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen."

The story of Abraham is a story of faith. Though "He went out, not knowing where he was to go," Abraham followed God wherever he led. He was a man without a home, but his hope was in the Lord. "When put to the test, [he] offered up Isaac," never ceasing to have faith in the God he knew to be trustworthy.

Faith is the necessary means to connect us with salvation because by it Christ dwells in our hearts. Only Jesus saves, but the means by which that salvation comes to us is faith. "We are saved by grace through faith, and that not of ourselves, it is a gift of God" (Ephesians 2: 8).

Full justification is obtained through Jesus Christ by all who believe (Acts 13, 38). This faith, the gift of God, is at the same time a personal response to his initiative. Faith is trust, dependence and obedience to Jesus our Savior who died and rose and who is the only mediator between God and men. Faith is not belief in something but in someone: Jesus. Faith is not a feeling, nor is it measured by emotion, nor is it self-suggestion. It is a total decision of the person that involves his/her whole being and commits his/her whole person. "For, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved." (Romans 10: 9-10) Faith must be manifested otherwise it is not faith.

PADRE JULIO REFLEXIÓN

"La fe es la garantía de los bienes que se esperan, la plena certeza de las realidades que no se ven." (Heb 11, 1). El diccionario define la fe como "fuerte creencia en Dios o en las doctrinas de una religión basada en la apprehensión espiritual en vez de la prueba", pero esto no es la fe cristiana. La fe, como vemos en la segunda lectura es el acto por el cual nos encomendamos a Dios. Leemos: "La fe es la realización de lo que se espera y la convicción de lo que no se ve." La historia de Abraham es una historia de fe. Aunque "Él salió sin saber a dónde iba a ir," Abraham siguió a Dios dondequiera que él llevó. Era un hombre sin hogar, pero su esperanza estaba en el Señor. "Cuando se ponen a prueba, [él] ofreció a Isaac," sin dejar de tener fe en el Dios que sabía que era digno de confianza.

La fe es el medio necesario para conectarnos con la salvación, pues por ella habita Cristo en nuestro corazón. Sólo Jesús salva, pero el medio por el cual esa salvación llega hasta nosotros es la fe. "Hemos sido salvados por gracia, mediante la fe, y esto no viene de nosotros mismos, sino que es un don de Dios" (Efesios 2, 8). La total justificación la obtiene por Jesucristo todo el que cree (Hechos 13, 38). Esta Fe, don de Dios, es al mismo tiempo la respuesta personal a su iniciativa. La fe es confianza, dependencia y obediencia a Jesús salvador, muerto y resucitado que es el único mediador entre Dios y los hombres. La fe no es creer en algo, sino en Alguien. La fe ni es un sentimiento, ni se mide por la emoción, ni tampoco es autosugestión. Es una decisión total del hombre que envuelve todo su ser y compromete toda su persona. Si confiesas con tu boca que Jesús es Señor y que Dios le resucitó de entre los muertos, serás salvo. Pues con el corazón se cree para conseguir la justicia y con la boca se confiesa para conseguir la salvación. (Romanos 10, 9-10) La fe, o se manifiesta, o no es fe.
