FATHER JULIO REFLECTION

“My son, do not disdain the discipline of the Lord or lose heart when reproved by him; for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines; he scourges every son he acknowledges.” (Heb 12: 5-6)

Any parent knows that love and discipline go together. I remember the times my mother corrected and disciplined me when I was a child. At the time, her correction seemed unjust and mean to me. Later in life I understood that discipline was part of my mother's and father's love and care for me. The letter to the Hebrews speak of how all discipline, “At the time, seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it.” In Sacred Scripture discipline is correction and instruction in righteousness and truth. Discipline is an essential element of every disciple of Jesus Christ who desires to live a life of holiness and faithfulness to God and to attain faith's goal: the salvation of their souls.

The book of proverbs provides a beautiful meditation on God's love and discipline: “My son, do not forget my teaching, take to heart my commands; for many days, and years of life, and peace, will they bring you. Do not let love and fidelity forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart. Then will you win favor and esteem before God and human beings. Trust in the LORD with all your heart, on your own intelligence do not rely; in all your ways be mindful of him, and he will make straight your paths. Do not be wise in your own eyes, fear the LORD and turn away from evil; this will mean health for your flesh and vigor for your bones. Honor the LORD with your wealth, with first fruits of all your produce; then will your barns be filled with plenty, with new wine your vats will overflow. The discipline of the LORD, my son, do not spurn; do not disdain his reproof; For whom the LORD loves he reproves, as a father, the son he favors.” (Proverbs 3: 1-12)

PADRE JULIO REFLEXIÓN

“Hijo mío, no desprecies la corrección del Señor, ni te desanimes cuando te reprenda. Porque el Señor corrige a los que ama, y da azotes a sus hijos predilectos.” (Heb 12, 5-6) Cualquier padre sabe que el amor y la disciplina van de la mano. Recuerdo las veces que mi madre me corrigió y disciplinó cuando yo era un niño. En ese momento, la corrección parecía injusta y mala para mí. Más tarde en la vida comprendí que la disciplina era parte del amor y cuidado de mi madre y de mi padre por mí. La carta a los Hebreos habla de cómo toda la disciplina, “En el momento, no causa alegría, sino más bien tristeza. Pero después produce, en los que la recibieron, frutos de paz y de santidad.” En las Sagradas Escrituras la disciplina es corrección e instrucción en la justicia y la verdad. La disciplina es un elemento esencial de todo discípulo de Jesucristo que desea vivir una vida de santidad y de fidelidad a Dios.

El libro de los proverbios nos provee una hermosa instrucción sobre el amor y la disciplina de Dios: “Hijo mío, no olvides mi enseñanza, y que tu corazón observe mis mandamientos, porque ellos te aportarán largos días, años de vida y prosperidad. Que nunca te abandonen la buena fe y la lealtad: átalas a tu cuello, escríbelas sobre la tabla de tu corazón, y encontrarás favor y aprobación a los ojos de Dios y de los hombres. Confía en el Señor y de todo corazón y no te apoyes en tu propia inteligencia; reconócelo a él en todos sus caminos y él allanará tus senderos. No seas sabio a tus propios ojos, teme al Señor y apártate del mal: eso será un remedio para tu carne y savia para tus huesos. Honra al Señor con tus bienes y con las primicias de todas tus ganancias: así tus graneros se llenarán de trigo y tus lagares desbordarán de vino nuevo. No desprecies, hijo mío, la corrección del Señor, ni te disgustes cuando él te reprende, porque el Señor reprende a los que ama como un padre a su hijo muy querido.” (Prov 3, 1-12)
