27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." - Lk 17:5-6

27° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Los apóstoles dijeron al Señor: "Auméntanos la fe". El Señor les contestó: "Si tuviera fe, aunque fuera tan pequeña como una semilla de mostaza, podrían decir a ese árbol frondoso: 'Arráncate de raíz y plántate en el mar', y los obedecería". - Lc 17, 5-6

FATHER JULIO REFLECTION

In the class of religion, the teacher proposed an assignment: each student had to complete the sentence "I have great faith because ...". How easy, the students thought. And they began to write their answers: ... I have great faith because I pray and go to church ... because I am baptized, ... because my grandmother is very Catholic, ... because I help others, ... because I belong to a group of the parish, ... because I study a lot, etc. They were sure they were going to get good grades. And they did so, although none got an "A". The teacher said, 'you responded pretty well, but I was surprised that no one answered saying "I have great faith because I believe in Jesus Christ, I love him, he's my best friend, I trust him ..." or something similar. Do not you think that you forgot the most important thing? So that's the reason there is not an "A" in your report cards!

"Faith is not merely intellectual, it encompasses the whole person. It is not enough to have a few ideas in mind, learn the catechism, accept standards of behavior, practice some cultic acts, be inscribed in a book or put a signature under the Creed. Faith is a personal encounter with the living Christ: accepting his presence, trusting Him, putting our lives in his hands and living in his presence." "Believing in God - for Christians, does not mean simply believing that God exists, or simply believe that He is real. It means believing by loving; believe abandoning oneself to God, joining and conforming oneself to Him." San Antonio de Padua

It is only this personal experience, which feeds on the word of God, is shared and celebrated in the community and is expressed in prayer and in action, that really makes us Christians, disciples and witnesses of the Lord. A Christian, therefore, is one who lives in relationship with Christ, in reference to him, "his eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith." (Heb 12: 2)

PADRE JULIO REFLEXIÓN

En la clase de religión, el profesor propuso un ejercicio: cada estudiante debía completar la frase "yo tengo mucha fe porque...". ¡Qué fácil, pensaron los muchachos! Y empezaron a escribir sus respuestas: porque rezo y voy a misa, ... porque estoy bautizada, ... porque mi abuelita es muy católica, ... porque ayudo a los demás, ... porque pertenezco a un grupo de la parroquia, ... porque estudio bastante, etc. Todos estaban seguros de sacar buena nota. Y así fue, aunque ninguno sacó 10. El profesor les dijo: -respondieron bastante bien, pero me ha extrañado mucho que nadie contestara diciendo "porque creo en Jesucristo, le amo, es mi mejor amigo, confío en él..." o algo parecido. ¿No les parece que se olvidaron de lo más importante? ¡Por eso no hay ningún 10 en sus tarjetas!

La fe no es algo meramente intelectual, abarca a toda la persona. No basta tener unas ideas en la cabeza, aprender el catecismo, aceptar unas normas de comportamiento, practicar algunos actos culturales, ser inscrito en un libro o poner una firma debajo del Credo. Es preciso un encuentro personal con Jesucristo vivo: aceptar su presencia, confiar en Él, poner nuestra vida en sus manos y vivirla en su presencia. "Creer en Dios - para los cristianos- no significa sencillamente creer que Dios existe, ni simplemente creer que Él es verdadero. Quiere decir creer amando, creer abandonándose a sí mismo a Dios, uniéndose y conformándose uno mismo con Él." San Antonio de Padua Sólo esta experiencia personal, que se alimenta de la palabra de Dios, se comparte y celebra en la comunidad, y se expresa en la oración y en la acción, nos hace realmente cristianos, discípulos y testigos del Señor. Es cristiano por consiguiente quien vive en relación con Cristo en referencia a Él, "fijos los ojos en Jesús, el que inicia y consuma la fe." (Heb 12: 2)
