FATHER JULIO REFLECTION

Leprosy was an infectious skin disease that was damaging at several levels: (1) physically, the disease could be painful and sometimes fatal. (2) Socially, the Law required lepers to be quarantined outside of Israelite society (Lev 13: 45-46). (3) Religiously, lepers were ritually unclean and thus unable to participate in worship (Lev 13: 3, 8). The combined weight of those burdens was extreme and nothing would be more welcome than healing and cleansing.

The Samaritan leper, physically cleansed by the freely given grace of Jesus, recognized in some way his need for spiritual healing and almost reflexively knew the path was gratitude and praise. He was truly healed in body, mind and spirit.

Gratitude is a very important attitude in the Christian life. Our very own existence is reason enough to be grateful to God. The dictionary defines gratitude as a strong feeling of appreciation to someone or something for what the person has done to help you or for the good the person has done for you. We as Catholics show our gratitude to God as we gather every Sunday to give thanks to Him for the gift of his love in sending us His Only begotten Son Jesus Christ to save us and restore us to life. The Eucharist is the greatest of all the acts of thanksgiving and gratitude we offer the Father. "The Eucharist is a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Father, a blessing by which the Church expresses her gratitude to God for all his benefits, for all that he has accomplished through creation, redemption, and sanctification. Eucharist means first of all "thanksgiving." (CCC 11360)

PADRE JULIO REFLEXIÓN

La lepra es una enfermedad infecciosa de la piel que daña a varios niveles: (1) física, la enfermedad puede ser doloroso y a veces fatal. (2) Social, los leprosos, según la ley debían ser puestos en cuarentena fuera de la Sociedad israelita (Levítico 13: 45-46). (3) religioso, los leprosos eran ritualmente impuros y por lo tanto no podían participar en el culto (Lev 13: 3, 8). El peso combinado de las cargas era extrema y nada sería más bienvenido que la curación y la limpieza.

El samaritano leproso, físicamente purificado por la gracia dada libremente por Jesús, reconoció de alguna manera su necesidad de curación espiritual y casi instintivamente sabía que el camino era la gratitud y la alabanza. Fue verdaderamente sano en cuerpo, mente y espíritu.

La gratitud es una actitud muy importante en la vida cristiana. Nuestra propia existencia es una razón suficiente para estar agradecido con Dios. El diccionario define la gratitud como un fuerte sentimiento de agradecimiento a alguien o algo que la persona ha hecho para ayudarnos o al bien que la persona ha hecho por nosotros. Nosotros, como católicos mostramos nuestra gratitud a Dios cuando nos reunimos todos los domingos para dar gracias a Dios por el don de su amor al enviar a Su Hijo Unigénito Jesucristo para salvarnos y devolvernos a la vida. "La Eucaristía es el más grande de todos los actos de acción de gracias y gratitud que ofrecemos al Padre. La Eucaristía es un sacrificio de acción de gracias al Padre, una bendición por la cual la Iglesia expresa su reconocimiento a Dios por todos sus beneficios, por todo lo que ha realizado mediante la creación, la redención y la santificación." (CCC 11360)
