33^{ER} DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

testimonio de mí.

Grábense bien que no tienen

FATHER JULIO REFLECTION

"The words of Jesus are meant to guide us toward what is essential, toward a life built on the word of God that Jesus gives us, toward an encounter with him, the living word, toward accountability before the judge of the living and the dead. The coming of Christ to judge the living and the dead is an integral part of Christian faith and hope. At that moment, Christians will share with the risen Christ the glory he already enjoys. Faith in the return of Christ is the second pillar of the Christian confession. He who became incarnate and now retains his humanity forever, he who has eternally opened a space for humanity within God, now calls the whole world into this open space in God, so that in the end God may be all in all, and the Son may deliver to the Father the whole world gathered around him (1 Corinthians 15:20-28). This promise contains the certainty of hope that God will wipe away every tear, that nothing meaningless will remain, that all injustices will end, and Justice will be restored. The triumph of love will be the final word in the history of the world. As we await the Lord's return and the fulfillment of his promise, we are called to persevere in faith to secure our lives for eternity. We are called to persevere, with the strength of the Holy Spirit, in love, kindness, patience, joy, and generosity, which allows our life of faith to shine brightly. May we always be aware of the saving presence of Jesus in our midst, especially through the Word of God and the sacraments. We proclaim your death, Lord Jesus, we rejoice in your resurrection, and we await your return in glory. Maranatha: Come, Lord Jesus!

PADRE JULIO REFLEXIÓN

"Las palabras de Jesús tienen el propósito de guiarnos hacia lo esencial, hacia la vida edificada sobre la palabra de Dios que Jesús nos da, hacia un encuentro con él, la palabra viva, hacia la responsabilidad ante el juez de los vivos y los muertos. La venida de Cristo para juzgar a los vivos y a los muertos es una parte integral de la fe y de la esperanza cristiana. En ese momento los cristianos van a compartir con Cristo resucitado la gloria que ya disfruta. La fe en el retorno de Cristo es el segundo pilar de la confesión cristiana. Aquel que se encarnó y ahora conserva su humanidad para siempre, el que ha abierto en el seno de Dios eternamente un espacio para la humanidad, ahora llama a todo el mundo a este espacio abierto en Dios, de modo que al final Dios sea todo en todos, y el Hijo pueda entregar al Padre todo el mundo que se congrega en torno a él (1 Cor 15:20-28). En esta promesa se contiene la certeza de la esperanza de que Dios enjugará toda lágrima, que nada sin sentido permanecerá, que todas las injusticias se acabaran y la justicia será restaurada. El triunfo del amor será la última palabra de la historia del mundo. Mientras esperamos el retorno del Señor y el cumplimiento de su promesa, estamos llamados a perseverar en la fe a fin de asegurar nuestras vidas para la eternidad. Estamos llamados a perseverar, con la fuerza del Espíritu Santo, en el amor, la bondad, la paciencia, la alegría, la generosidad, la cual hace posible que nuestra vida de fe brille intensamente. Que seamos siempre conscientes de la presencia salvadora de Jesús en medio de nosotros, especialmente a través de la palabra de Dios y los sacramentos. Anunciamos tu muerte Señor Jesús, nos regocijamos en Tu resurrección y esperamos Tu retorno en gloria. Marana tha: ¡Ven, Señor Jesús!
