Reflection

To stand with Christ is to stand with life

“God did not make death ...for he fashioned all things that they might have being.” This line from the first reading is not only an assertion that tells us something about God; it is a mandate for his people to stand against the power of death and to defend and promote life. Likewise, the raising of the dead girl to life, recounted in the Gospel passage, is not simply a story about what Jesus did; it is a summons to his people to do it again and again as they build a Culture of Life in the world. ” (Priests for Life)

Estar del lado de Cristo, es estar del lado de la Vida

“Dios no hizo la muerte ni goza destruyendo a los vivientes. Todo lo creó para que subsistiera...” Éste renglón de la primera lectura no sólo es una afirmación que nos dice algo sobre Dios; es un mandato para que su gente se enfrente al poder de la muerte defendiendo y promoviendo la Vida.

De la misma manera, la resurrección de la niña a la Vida, narrada en el pasaje del evangelio, no es una simple historia sobre lo que Jesús hizo; convoca a su pueblo a hacerlo de nuevo, una y otra vez, construyendo así una Cultura de la Vida en el mundo..” (Priests for Life)

DID YOU KNOW?

Trust your instincts when it comes to human trafficking

Human trafficking is happening in more places than you would think, and often it passes unnoticed because traffickers are highly skilled. If you see a situation that does not feel right, or you observe something inappropriate or concerning, you could be saving someone's life by reporting it. Often, trafficking can be noted by small indicators: someone who is deferring to another person often, or who is often controlled in who they can talk to or what they can say. Victims will also often appear to be timid or fearful, especially of a particular person, and to be isolated from other friends, family, and community members. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Know the Facts: Abductions and Human Trafficking" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Confíe en sus instintos cuando se trata del tráfico de personas

La trata de personas ocurre en más lugares de los que uno podría pensar y, a menudo, pasa desapercibida porque los traficantes están altamente capacitados. Si ve una situación que simplemente no le parece correcta, u observa algo inapropiado o preocupante, podría estar salvando la vida de alguien al denunciarlo. Por lo regular, la trata de personas se puede detectar mediante pequeños indicadores, tales como alguien que a menudo se somete a otra persona, o que a menudo está controlado en cuanto con quién puede hablar o qué puede decir. Las víctimas también suelen parecer tímidas o temerosas, especialmente hacia una persona en particular, y estar aisladas de otros amigos, familiares y miembros de la comunidad. Para obtener más información, lea el artículo en inglés de VIRTUS® "Know the Facts: Abductions and Human Trafficking" (Conozca los hechos: secuestros y trata de personas) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
