POLITICS AND RELIGION DO MIX

The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, in its doctrinal note “On some questions regarding the participation of Catholics in political life” (2002) said about St. Thomas More: “[He] gave witness by his martyrdom to the inalienable dignity of the human conscience. Though subjected to various forms of psychological pressure, Saint Thomas More refused to compromise, never forsaking the constant fidelity to legitimate authority and institutions which distinguished him; he taught by his life and his death that ‘man cannot be separated from God, nor politics from morality.’”

LA POLÍTICA Y LA RELIGIÓN SI SE MEZCLAN

La Congregación para la Doctrina de la Fe, en su nota doctrinal “En algunos asuntos relacionados con la participación de los Católicos en la vida política” (2002) dijo sobre Santo Tomás Moro: “[Él] dio testimonio mediante su martirio sobre la inalienable dignidad de la conciencia humana. Aunque sometido a diversas formas de presión psicológica, Santo Tomas Moro se negó a transigir, sin abandonar la constante fidelidad a la legítima autoridad y a las instituciones que lo distinguieron; él enseñó con su vida y con su muerte que ‘el hombre no puede ser separado de Dios, ni los políticos de la moral.’”

Revealing the Father

In today's Gospel, two disciples bring their deep questions to Jesus. Thomas asks, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus responds with words that echo through history: "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through me" (John 14:5-6). Christ himself is the path that leads us home, the truth that anchors us, and the life that gives us hope.

Then Philip pleads, "Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us" (John 14:8). Jesus replies that to see him is to see the Father. Every word he speaks and every action he takes reveal the Father's love. To know Jesus, then, is to know God, not as a distant or unknowable deity, but as a Father who desires our trust and intimacy.

This revelation changes everything. If Christ has shown us the Father, then our lives must reflect this truth as well. Just as Jesus' words and deeds revealed the Father, so too we are called to live in such a way that others encounter God through us. Our daily actions, words, and choices become signs pointing to the Father's love.

The readings remind us that this mission belongs to the whole Church. We are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own" (1 Peter 2:9), entrusted with proclaiming God's marvelous light. The Acts of the Apostles shows how the early Church grew in faith and service, each member contributing to the work of God. In the same way, we are called to embody Christ so that others may come to know the heart of the Father through us.

Living the Gospel

Christ calls us not only to believe in him but also to make him visible to others. This week, take time to examine what your life reveals. Do your words bring encouragement? Do your actions reflect compassion? Do your habits point toward heaven? Choose one area of your life where you can more intentionally reveal the Father's love through gentleness, honesty, and service. By imitating Christ, your life can become a living message of the Gospel.

A NEW KING MOURNS A KING, UNIFIES ISRAEL

*King David Playing the Harp (1622)
by Gerard van Honthorst*

The reading from 1 Chronicles recounts the genealogies of the Israelites from Adam to Abraham, through the twelve tribes of Israel, to the kingship of David. His rise as the one king of Israel brings unity to the many names and generations seen in the biblical genealogies. The unification, however, will come to complete fulfillment for all humanity in Jesus, who comes from the human line of David.

- In 2 Samuel 1, David mourns the deaths of his enemy Saul and his dear friend Jonathan by singing a song of lamentation. David entreats the people of Israel to learn this song and sing it. David refuses to be held captive by the memory of Saul's animosity and jealousy. Rather, he honors Saul.
- David's rise to power includes numerous instances of violence and mercy.
- He must war against the relatives of Saul, but he does so while taking many opportunities to forgive those who fight him.
- Under David, Israel's unity will be based on the law of the Lord.
- The new king of Israel makes Jerusalem its capital, choosing it as his stronghold.
- In 2 Samuel 6, David brings the Ark of the Covenant back to Jerusalem. The sacred Ark contains the Ten Commandments, Aaron's staff, and manna.
- This chapter emphasizes the sacredness of the Ark. Of course, Mary will be the more important Ark.
- Mary, the Mother of God, is the "new Ark of the Covenant," who carries the Word made flesh and "the living bread which came down from heaven" in her womb (John 6:51).
- God is pleased with David. He instructs the prophet Nathan to let David know that God will bless David's house.
- Although David has unified the kingdom, Deuteronomy 17:17 warns that a king should not have multiple wives "lest his heart turn away." Recalcitrant, King David takes many wives and concubines (see 2 Samuel 5:13).
- As a result, most of David's problems will come not from external enemies but from his own family.

What We Believe PART ONE: THE PROFESSION OF FAITH

DELIVERING GOD'S KINGDOM

Every Christian shares the Church's apostolate to spread the Kingdom of Heaven. Wherever we are, we should ask, "How can I bring the Kingdom of God here?" To be fruitful, we must be united with our source, Jesus, by worshiping in Mass and Adoration; studying Scripture and the Catechism of the Catholic Church; and actively participating in the sacramental life of the Church. Jesus empowered his vicar, the pope, and the bishops to teach with infallibility and sanctify the Church by praying, preaching, and offering the sacraments. The vocations of consecrated, religious, and the laity are also essential for building a just and virtuous society. As the saying goes, your life may be the only Bible someone else reads.

Keep in Mind

- Jesus made the apostles the first bishops and commissioned them to ordain successors with the same authority to teach, sanctify, and govern. Apostolic succession traces directly back to Jesus.
- In Scripture, name changes signify a new mission. When Jesus changes Simon's name to Peter ("rock"), he says, "Upon this rock, I will build my Church," designating Peter as his vicar (see Matthew 16:18).
- Together, Peter's successor (the pope) and the apostles' successors (the bishops) form the Magisterium.
- The pope or the Magisterium can propose teachings that interpret and apply Divine Revelation.
- Infallibility is restricted to faith and morals, but not every teaching of the Church on those matters is infallible. There is authentic teaching that is not infallibly set forth (CCC 892). Faithful Catholics must obey these teachings.
- All members of the Church are called to be saints.

In this church window, Christ is at the Ascension with the apostles, whom he sends out to preach the Gospel and baptize in the name of the triune God (see Matthew 28:19). All Christians are called to partake in this mission (see CCC 863).

Have courage to share the Gospel with someone.

THE ROSARY IN A YEAR

WITH FR. MARK-MARY AMES, CFR

PHASE 3: MEDITATING ON THE MYSTERIES

The Luminous Mysteries

PROCLAMATION OF THE KINGDOM:

A Heart Filled with Faith

The Sermon on the Mount by Jan Brueghel the Elder

The Gospel of Mark is the shortest of the four works by the Evangelists. But the meaning within its pages is not inhibited by brevity. The Gospel begins with Our Lord's baptism in the Jordan by John the Baptist. John feels unworthy but consents to baptize Jesus upon his insistence. In essence, the earthly work of John the Baptist is finished. As we will read in the book of John, the man who performed the sacrament on God the Son knew Jesus "must increase, but I must decrease" (John 3:30).

According to Mark, Jesus next faced the wilderness and the temptations of Satan in a forty-day period before being ministered to by angels. Jesus' revelation of "increase" takes place as John "decreases" and is arrested.

Our Lord immediately calls all to repent and believe in the Gospel. Jesus is announcing the arrival of the Kingdom of God, and his teachings and miracles vividly demonstrate the mercy and love God has for all people everywhere. For us to fully live in this Kingdom of divine mercy and love, we must pray for a heart that casts sin aside and then is filled with the gospel truth, faith, and love of the Triune God.

Fruit of this mystery: We pray for a heart filled with faith.

Scripture: Mark 1:14-15

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent, and believe in the gospel."

Honor your loved ones or a special intention by dedicating the Sanctuary Lamp for two weeks.

Honre a sus seres queridos o a una intención especial dedicando la Lámpara del Santuario durante dos semanas.

May 3, 2026—May 16, 2026

The Sanctuary Lamp burning for the next two weeks is for the blessings of End of Abortion.

We ask that you please pray for this intention

The red Sanctuary Lamp, positioned near the Tabernacle, serves as a sacred symbol—a constant reminder of the sacramental presence of Jesus Christ. It's a gentle reminder to the faithful that Jesus is always with us. Beyond its symbolic significance, the Sanctuary Lamp also reflects our deep love and affection for God.

Our Church now offers a meaningful way to honor a deceased family member or celebrate a special occasion: by sponsoring the Sanctuary Lamp for a full two weeks for a $25 donation. If you wish to provide this tribute for a loved one, please coordinate with the Parish Office at 310-390-5034. The period of remembrance begins on a Sunday and concludes on a Saturday two weeks later. We also include the Lamp's special intentions in our weekly bulletin, inviting our faithful Parishioners to hold those intentions in their prayers.

La lámpara roja del Santuario, colocada cerca del Tabernáculo, sirve como un símbolo sagrado, un recordatorio constante de la presencia sacramental de Jesucristo. Es un recordatorio a los fieles de que Jesús está siempre con nosotros. Más allá de su significado simbólico, la Lámpara del Santuario también refleja nuestro profundo amor y afecto por Dios.

Nuestra Iglesia ahora ofrece una manera significativa de honrar a sus queridos fallecidos o celebrar una ocasión especial: patrocinando la Lámpara del Santuario durante dos semanas completas por una donación de $25. Si desea brindar este tributo a un ser querido, coordine con la Oficina Parroquial al 310-390-5034. El período de conmemoración comienza un domingo y concluye un sábado dos semanas después. También incluimos las intenciones especiales de la Lámpara en nuestro boletín semanal, invitando a nuestros fieles feligreses a mantener esas intenciones en sus oraciones.

NOVENA FOR ALL MOTHER'S DAY

May 1 to 9th, 2026

Prayer for Mothers

God of tender love and life,
You compared your love for humanity
To the love a mother has for her own child.

You are the Lord and Giver of Life,
And you knit each of us together
In our mother's womb.

You provide for the world
The example of Mary, your own mother,
Who said yes to life amid her confusion and surprise.

We thank you, then, for our mothers.
Though human, they are also a reflection of you, Lord God.
They are your gift to us.

We pray for all mothers today.
May they realize the greatness of their vocation
And have the strength to live it without fear.
Forgive their sins, and keep their eyes raised up to you.

To those who still make this earthly journey with us,
Give us the grace to love them as we should;
And to those whom you have called from this life,
Give a special place of honor in your Kingdom of endless life.

We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.
(Fr. Frank Pavone, National Director, Priests for Life)

NOVENA PARA LAS MADRES

1 al 9 de mayo 2026

Oración para las madres

Dios de vida y amor generoso,
Tú comparaste tu amor por la humanidad con el amor de una madre hacia su hijo.

Eres el Señor y dador de vida que nos une a todos en el seno de nuestra Madre.

Tú le brindaste al mundo el ejemplo de María, tu propia madre, que dijo sí a la vida, aún entre confusión y sorpresa.

Por eso te agradecemos por las madres de este mundo, que en su humanidad también son un reflejo de Ti, Señor Dios.
Son Tu regalo para nosotros.

Hoy oramos por todas ellas.
Para que puedan darse cuenta de la grandeza de su vocación
y tengan la fortaleza para vivir sin miedo.
Perdona sus pecados y mantén sus ojos puestos en Ti.

Danos la gracia de amar como deberíamos
a aquellas que aún están en camino aquí en la tierra, Y a las que ya han dejado esta vida
dales un lugar de honor especial en tu Reino de vida eterna, Junto a Ti, padre nuestro.

Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo, nuestro Señor. Amén.

Por más de 50 años, el Encuentro Matrimonial Mundial ha ayudado a millones de parejas en todo el mundo a liberar el potencial de su relación con nuevas formas de vivir su "sí" diariamente.

El matrimonio es un largo viaje. La rutina diaria puede hacer que pierdas el contacto con tu cónyuge.

Cuando damos por sentada nuestra relación más cercana a través de la vida cotidiana, caemos en hábitos inconscientes que a menudo son poco saludables.

"Esta experiencia es imprescindible para todas las parejas. Definitivamente traerá de vuelta el romance y la alegría a su matrimonio." --Oliver A.

"Cuando mi esposo y yo no teníamos más esperanzas, encontramos esta organización (...) ¡¡Nos volvimos a conectar y nos enamoramos de nuevo!!" --Charlotte T.

"Llevábamos diez años casados cuando fuimos (...) Nos convertimos en mucho mejores padres gracias a esto." --Barbara W.

"¡Fue increíble! El fin de semana más fructífero que mi esposa y yo hemos tenido. ¡Hagan lo que sea necesario y programen el suyo ahora!" -- Bruce R.

La experiencia del Encuentro Matrimonial Mundial es un refugio para el corazón que les ayuda a escuchar, compartir y conectar más profundamente.

No hay discusión en grupo. Se trata sólo de ustedes dos aprendiendo a ser la pareja más amorosa y feliz que puedan ser.

Incluso cuando un matrimonio marcha bien, siempre hay oportunidades para hacerlo funcionar mejor.

Así como conducir un automóvil sin mantenimiento puede generar problemas, un matrimonio necesita atención para mantenerse en marcha.

¿Qué sucede en un Encuentro Matrimonial?

En el transcurso de la experiencia -típicamente durante un fin de semana- tres parejas y un sacerdote proporcionan nuevas herramientas utilizando ejemplos de sus propias vidas para ayudarlos a explorar temas comunes con los que todos nos podemos identificar, como:

- Explorar nuestros estilos de personalidad
- Apreciar nuestras diferencias
- Escuchar de una manera nueva
- Comunicarse íntimamente
- Abordar temas difíciles
- Descubrir el anhelo de Dios para nuestro matrimonio
- Continuar el viaje

Si bien la fe es una parte poderosa de este proceso, la experiencia se enfoca en los altibajos de la vida matrimonial. Parejas casadas de cualquier religión o sin afiliación religiosa, son bienvenidas.

Creciendo juntos

Mantenerse fuertes como pareja proporciona un ambiente estable y amoroso para sus hijos. A medida que los niños crezcan sabrán continuar siendo una fuerza unida para guiar a su familia. Y más adelante cuando el hogar se convierta en un nido vacío, podrán seguir creciendo juntos en su relación.

¡Aprendan a ser la mejor pareja que puedan ser!

Fiel a la definición de la Iglesia Católica de que el matrimonio es una alianza que existe entre un hombre y una mujer, cualquier referencia a "matrimonio" o "pareja" hecha por el Encuentro Matrimonial Mundial es en este contexto.
