STEWARDSHIP SPOTLIGHT - TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME September 3, 2017

A theme of the second reading and gospel for today's mass is sacrifice. Let's think about what happens at mass, the Eucharist ("Thanksgiving" in Greek). What should be our major disposition at the Eucharist? Many people view it as "GETTING" - receiving Holy Communion and hearing a good homily.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1369) "In the Eucharist the sacrifice of Christ becomes also the sacrifice of the members of his Body. The lives of the faithful, their praise, sufferings, prayer, and work, are united with those of Christ and with his total offering, and so acquire a new value. Christ's sacrifice present on the altar makes it possible for all generations of Christians to be united with his offering."

This means that we are supposed to be GIVING of ourselves to the Father, in the same way that Jesus fully gave of himself. At the consecration we are supposed to be consciously offering/sacrificing ourselves to God, united with the sacrifice of Jesus. We are not supposed to be passive observers. At the consecration of the bread to the Precious Body of Jesus, I pray, "God, my father, my whole being, body, mind, and spirit is yours." At the consecration of the wine to the Precious Blood of Jesus, I pray, "May I sacrifice myself, may I have mercy, may I love as Jesus loved."

If we offer ourselves completely to the Father, as Jesus did, we cannot leave Mass as the same people we were when we entered. Our lives will be transformed. The hard part is following through with these commitments when we leave church and in our everyday lives.

What is God asking of us when we celebrate the sacrifice of Jesus in the mass? Everything! As St. Paul says, we are to "offer (our) bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God." And Jesus says, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." Are we ready and willing to answer His call?
