March 4 2018 • Third Sunday of Lent

Jesus answered and said to them,
"Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up."

Jesús respondió y les dijo: "Destruye este templo y en tres días lo levantaré".

Jn 2:19

ST. AUGUSTINE SPOTLIGHT - THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

March 4, 2018

You probably noticed the change in the name of this piece, and you may ask, "Why?" When I first started writing the Stewardship Spotlight some four years ago, I was chair of the Stewardship Committee, and the goal was to motivate parishioners to consider stewardship in a more serious light. The Spotlight often was related to the readings of the week or sometimes goings-on at the parish, but not directly to stewardship. I stepped down as chair of the Stewardship Committee a couple of months ago and remained a member until last week, when I left the Stewardship Committee to chair the Service Committee. I became Parish Council chair earlier this year and continue in that capacity now. Service is highly related to stewardship, being the time and talent arms. So, a more generic title is in order.

My first goal as chair of the Service Committee is to reconstitute it. Right now, Sr. Ana has been leading groups of parishioners, mainly students, serving the homeless at Grace Marketplace every Monday. The students, primarily, have also been working at Habitat for Humanity. There are numerous other outreach opportunities in our local area that our parish should be involved with. Catholic Charities is great example with numerous volunteer activities. I see the Service Committee as being comprised of people with an interest in being the hands and heart of Jesus to our brothers and sisters in need, both locally and globally. I see the committee as being leaders, planners, and organizers, not just doers. We should facilitate the involvement of the entire parish in service – service is not limited to committee members. If you have a connection with or knowledge of outreach opportunities or are interested in service, we need your contribution to help guide future activities. I also see service as an excellent way to get students and non-student parishioners working side by side to do God's work. We will have monthly meetings in the evening. Please email me at pagulig@gmail.com if you have questions or are interested in joining the Service Committee.

Paul A. Gulig
Chair, Service Committee and Parish Council

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that the two essential elements of the sacrament of Reconciliation are the human part and God's action (through the Church). These two essential elements are

1. Contrition: an attitude of sorrow for actions
2. Confession: a clear telling of sin
3. Absolution: the emphasizing the healing power of Jesus.
4. Satisfaction: performance of penance, reform of life and making amends

Women's Book Discussion Group

Save the Date: March 25. The Women's Book Discussion Group will host local author Mary Sue Koeppel who will discuss the book she co-authored with other women who joined a religious order in the 1950's and now live in Gainesville. The book is titled "No One's Daughter, Our Journey of Transformation". All proceeds from the sale of the book benefit the retirement fund for Nuns. All are welcome.

Bread and Soup Supper

Is Lent passing you by too quickly? You still have a chance to have a homemade vegetarian bread and soup supper with Clay our seminarian on Friday March 16 at 7:00 in the lounge. Clay will present a short discussion of Pope Francis' "Joy of the Gospel" followed by an opportunity for discussion. If you want to read ahead stop in the office for a copy of "Joy" but reading is not crucial. Even if you missed the first session come any way.

Liturgy of the Hours

Are you interested in the Liturgy of the Hours or unsure as to what it is? Do you sometimes walk into daily Mass early and see people pray out loud together but don't know what's going on? Would you ever consider leading one of the Hours? Take this interest survey on catholicgators.org/news/liturgyhours to let us know! Email melissa@catholicgators.org if you have any questions.

en el cuarto de conferencias

El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica enseña que los dos elementos esenciales de la sacramento de la Reconciliación son la parte humana y la acción de Dios (a través de la Iglesia). Estos dos elementos esenciales son

1. Contrición: una actitud de tristeza por las acciones
2. Confesión: una narración clara del pecado
3. Absolución: el énfasis en el poder sanador de Jesús.
4. Satisfacción: rendimiento de la penitencia, reforma de la vida y reparación.

Preaching Programs on Marian Spirituality

Fr. Hugh Gillespie, SMM, has scheduled a two-week trip focusing on Marian devotion with visits to various Catholic parishes and schools in the Diocese of St. Augustine from April 19, 2018 through May 2, 2018. Additionally, he will minister to inmates in selected prisons in Northeast Florida. Fr. Gillespie's visit features enrichment opportunities for spiritual formation and preparation for Marian Consecration in the style of St. Louis de Montfort.

Fr. Gillespie, SMM, is one of only twenty Missionaries of the Company of Mary in the United States, and he is trained in the Montfortian method of proclaiming true devotion to Jesus Christ through His mother, Mary. For Catholics, this path of self-surrender invites a maturing growth in Jesus Christ. Fr. Gillespie, SMM, challenges Catholics to be "called to risk a fuller living out of their baptismal immersion in the life of Jesus Christ."

Fr. Gillespie's schedule of visits includes a Day of Recollection at two parishes in the Diocese of St. Augustine, one to be held on Saturday, April 21, 2018 from 9 am - 3 pm at St. Ambrose Parish, 6070 Church Road, Elkton, FL and the other on Saturday, April 28, 2018 from 8 am - 2 pm at Holy Family Parish, 9800 Baymeadows Road, Jacksonville, FL. The program for both days features the celebration of Holy Mass along with the catechetical programs.

Preregistration is required and will include workshop materials. To register, please email Trudy@familyforlife.info. Light refreshments will be served.

Quo Vadis: Knowing God

Join our Lenten study of Aquinas's Five Ways to prove the existence of God. The Five Ways open our eyes to God's nearness and to our dependence on His tender love.

We will meet in the parish lounge on Wednesdays from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm, Feb 28 to March 21.

Everyone is welcome! Invite friends—especially if they like to ask hard questions! There will be wine and cheese, as well as coffee and doughnuts. No reading is required.

Each Wednesday will stand alone; so if you miss some you can still enjoy the others!
