ST. AUGUSTINE SPOTLIGHT
SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 29, 2018

Today's first reading from the Second Book of Kings and the Gospel from John involve multiplication of food to feed a multitude of hungry people. These apparent miracles by Elisha and Jesus beg the question, "How many miracles (that is acts that defy the laws of nature that He, Himself, created) does God do these days, and how many miracles does He do in response to our prayers?"

We all pray for those in need, for example the hungry, the homeless, and the poor. Have you ever thought about how you expect such prayers to be answered? There are a limited number of possibilities. Let's consider them. Is God supposed to perform a literal miracle and make money, food, clothing, or shelter miraculously appear from nowhere? OK, not many of us has seen or heard of such things happening. I'm not saying that God never performs miracles on such a scale, but admittedly they are rare, and so asking for such a miracle is not a good bet for getting our desired outcome for those in need. OK, then maybe God will inspire His people to do the work. Fair enough. Are we praying for God to inspire some OTHER people to become generous? First, God has given us free will, to follow his will or not. That is why there is sin. So God will never force anyone to do good, bad, or any specific act (including giving a friend or relative a job). He will call on us through His Spirit to do His will, though. So again, are we asking God to send his Spirit to other people? That is not a sure thing, because people never fail to fail in doing God's will.

The only people we KNOW will be changed by these prayers that we make is US. When praying for those in need, if our prayer is more than just a nice thought, we must open ourselves to be changed by the Spirit within us to do God's will for those in need. If everyone who makes such a prayer opens themselves to being changed, seemingly miracles really would happen, just like the feeding of the multitudes in the reading from today. Not to take anything away from Elisha and Jesus, but some people propose that the inspiration and teaching of Jesus and Elisha inspired those in the crowd to share what they had with those in need, and the shortage was solved.

Moving forward, when we pray for those in need, let us ask ourselves if our prayers are no more than a well wish (e.g., "You're in my thoughts."), if we're expecting everyone else to be God's helping hands or if we're willing to let the Spirit work through us to do God's will.

Thanks to Mr. Joseph West and students at Saint Francis Catholic Academy for the food drive for SVDP. To all who have donated and those who work to help us assist with delivering food, doing home visits, paying utilities and/or rent, we extend our heartfelt appreciation. In the last six months, we helped 25 families during home visits and 18 families without a home visit. We paid $2,270.00 on utilities and $2,100 on rent. Whatever you do for the least one of these you have also done unto me. You are invited to our meeting in Gainesville at St. Patrick Social Hall any Monday at 6:00 PM or call 352-222-0588. Meetings are also held at 6:30pm on Thursdays at St. Francis-Newberry Conference Room located at 25527 W. Newberry Rd. in Newberry. Call 352-660-9310 to see if this is the charity that interests you."

The Black and Indian Mission Office is comprised of three distinct but inter-related organizations, each with its own purpose and history, but all seeking to fulfill the one Mission to the Missions! Founded by the Catholic bishops of the United States, each organization cooperates with local diocesan communities to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ and respond to real and pressing needs on the ground. Read more and join us in our Mission to the Missions! Visit in-fo@blackandindianmission.org for details.

Questions about God, your soul, Catholic teachings, becoming Catholic, preparing to receive the sacraments -- especially the questions you feel you should already know or that no one knows! To get the questions flowing, the RCIA will be showing episodes from Bishop Barron's renowned series -- such as the Catholicism Series, Pivotal Players, and his newest on the Mass -- starting July 1st at 4:00pm in the newly redecorated parish lounge every Sunday until August. Then we will be hosting a Q&A. There will be coffee and doughnuts. All are welcome.

This year marks the 50th anniversary of Humanae Vitae (1968-2018).

Written by Blessed Paul VI, this document provides beautiful and clear teaching about God's plan for married love and the transmission of life.

For resources and a listing of events being held visit the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website (usccb.org).

Please join us in welcoming twenty-four of our new and youngest parishioners with whom we have celebrated the Sacrament of Baptism this year.

May Mary, the Holy Mother of the Redeemer, who accepted God's plan without reservations, support you, nourishing your hope and desire to serve faithfully Christ and his Church. May Our Lady help these little ones especially, so that they can fully realize the plan of God has in store for each of them.

(Col 4,2)

Espiritualidad hijos de la Madre de Dios

El padre Wilson Colmenares estará confesando durante el Santo Rosario y Finalizaremos con La Santa Eucaristía .

Orar por las Vocaciones Sacerdotales y Religiosas

"La Iglesia, Madre de las vocaciones"

"El Concilio Vaticano II resalta la responsabilidad de los laicos para orar y apoyar las vocaciones."

Cada primer sábado del
mes en el Rosario de Aurora , al final de la Eucaristía , una familia asignada está invitada
a llevar el cáliz a su casa y a orar por las vocaciones sacerdotales
y religiosas.

"Motivamos a las familias para rezar y promover las vocaciones al Sacerdocio y a la vida religiosa. El Cáliz es un recuerdo concreto de esta intención especial para la Iglesia."
