ST. AUGUSTINE SPOTLIGHT

MAY 26, 2019

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

We are early in the summer session at UF and Santa Fe. This is the lowest census for students in the year, except for breaks. Many of the students are on fire with the Spirit and are extremely active in our parish faith community, serving in a variety of liturgical and service ministries. Many people will also be taking vacations and leaving for significant periods of time. The absence of all of these people over the summer creates holes in the rosters of liturgical ministers. For the rest of us "left behind" now is a great time to step up and get involved in various ministries.

For liturgical ministries (see www.catholicgators.org/current-liturgical-minister-resources):

- Altar servers. We have people of all ages who assist with mass at the altar. Altar Servers should be able to maintain a reverent and attentive disposition during the Mass.
- Music. Music is integral to our beautiful liturgies. Singing or instrumental talent is needed, as is time for practice.
- Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. You should have reverence for the Eucharist in giving the Body and Blood of Christ to your brothers and sisters.
- Lectors. To proclaim the Word of God at Mass, you should be comfortable in front of a lot of people and be able to read clearly and with an appropriate level of feeling.
- Hospitality. Although hospitality ministers help with the collections, our goal is to have one or two at each entrance to the church greeting people as they come to Mass and as they leave. We want to make St. Augustine's as welcoming of a faith community as possible. Ideally, every parishioner would be a hospitality minister regularly.
- Altar Guild. The Altar Guild maintains and beautifies the church by changing and washing the altar cloths and arranging flowers and adornments for liturgical seasons.

For service we are serving meals to the homeless at Grace Marketplace every Monday from 5:15 – 6:30 p.m. All you have to do is show up and help feed our brothers and sisters. Please contact me at service@catholicgators.org.
