ST. AUGUSTINE REFLECTION

Many of us made New Year's Resolutions to improve ourselves with the new beginning of a new year. Many people, like me, made resolutions to improve our health (I'm trying to lose weight yet again) and are trying to do better in our relationships. Diet and relationships are difficult, as those behaviors can be deeply ingrained in our beings.

In addition to those worldly resolutions, how about if we also focus on our relationship with God? My favorite themes for writing the Reflection and reflecting on my own life are: How well do I follow the two greatest commandments to love God with my whole being and my neighbor as myself? and do my thoughts, words, and actions after receiving the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist actually reflect that? These are never-ending matters that will forever be a challenge.

What does loving God with my whole self look like? Is it a minimal amount of time devoted to prayer, reading the Word, and participating in liturgies? Is it giving the minimal amount of time, talent, and treasure to God through His people and Church? And how about loving our neighbor as ourselves, do we define our neighbor in convenient, non-challenging ways? The Good Samaritan was the supposed enemy of Jewish robbery victim, but Jesus tell us he was his neighbor. Do we judge our brothers and sisters as being unworthy of our love, at least in terms of sharing our time, talent, and treasure with those in need?

Finally, although it is easy to find scandals in the Catholic Church and to point fingers at the magisterium, I personally believe that the greatest scandal, sin, if you will, is that our actions and attitudes after receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus at mass do not reveal to the world that we are changed people, that anything extraordinary has occurred. If we, in fact, showed the world that something miraculous and divine had happened to us, we would convert the entire world to our faith. But I fear that, for the most part, they would look at us and ask if we really believe in the Real Presence, not by superficial reverence, but more importantly by our very lives having been changed. I will try to work on these things now and for the rest of the year. Please prayerfully join me.

ST. AUGUSTINE PARISHIONER SPOTLIGHT

Alex Smith - Student Parishioner & Alpha Co-Leader

I am a graduating senior here at UF, studying Materials Science and Engineering. As a college student, I've been blessed with the opportunity to serve the campus community in several different capacities, such as through my time as an Engineering Ambassador, and this extends even more personally to the ways I've been able to give back to the Catholic Gators/St. A's community. Over the past four years, I have served on Summer Newman team, the Outdoors Ministry/Frassati Society, and most recently, as one of the Alpha Leaders for the Spring 2020 semester. Through this time, I'm happy to have been able to support this community in my involvement, but the true extent of my personal transformation throughout my college experience extends well beyond any of this, and is firmly rooted in my faith formation as a parishioner at St. Augustine's.

As a parishioner over the past four years, my faith life has matured in ways that I could've never fully recognized or appreciated. That is a testament to the formation offered through the parish to its students and the community of accountability exhibited by the other students who can regularly be found at daily Mass or living a Sacramental life. Before college, the idea of living a Sacramental life was something that I took for granted. However, when supported by a community that wants to get you to Heaven, and vice versa, you begin to change the way that you approach going to Confession or receiving Holy Communion, and that carries into your ability to live a life of virtuous friendships that make the difference as you experience a campus as large as that of the University of Florida. Even though it's intimidating to think about life beyond college, which is becoming more of a reality as I get closer to graduation, through the formation I've experienced at St. A's, I have the practicals that I need to keep pursuing that Sacramental life as a Catholic in the workplace, regardless of where that may be for me in the near future.

"As a parishioner... my faith life has matured in ways that I could've never fully recognized..."

We are looking for more parishioners to spotlight! If you are interested in sharing about what St. Augustine Church and Catholic Student Center means to you, how this community has impacted you, and sharing the ways the Lord has worked in your life, please email Sandy@catholicgators.org!

PARISH EVENTS & NEWS

150TH ANNIVERSARY OF OUR DIOCESE

The celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Diocese has now begun! Bishop Felipe Estévez proclaims 2020 as the 150th Anniversary year of the Diocese on this Solemnity of the Epiphany, Sunday, January 5, 2020. Our parish has the privilege of being one of the pilgrimage parishes during the 150th Jubilee celebration. This means that during the year, a plenary indulgence may be gained when visiting the church with the usual conditions. A plenary indulgence may only be gained once a day.

What is an indulgence? The Code of Canon Law defines it as "a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints" (can. 992; Catechism of the Catholic Church n.1471). Plenary indulgences remove all of the punishment due to sins and can be applied to oneself or to the souls of the deceased.
