QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“How could I bear a crown of gold when the Lord bears a crown of thorns, and bears it for me?”

– St. Elizabeth of Hungary

ST. AUGUSTINE REFLECTION

Let us not resist the first advent, and the second will not terrify us

Then all the trees of the forest will exult before the face of the Lord, for he has come, he has come to judge the earth. He has come the first time, and he will come again. At his first coming, his own voice declared in the gospel: Hereafter you shall see the Son of Man coming upon the clouds. What does he mean by hereafter? Does he not mean that the Lord will come at a future time when all the nations of the earth will be striking their breasts in grief? Previously he came through his preachers, and he filled the whole world. Let us not resist his first coming, so that we may not dread the second.

What then should the Christian do? He ought to use the world, not become its slave. And what does this mean? It means having, as though not having. So says the Apostle: My brethren, the appointed time is short: from now on let those who have wives live as though they had none; and those who mourn as though they were not mourning; and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing; and those who buy as though they had no goods; and those who deal with this world as though they had no dealings with it. For the form of this world is passing away. But I wish you to be without anxiety. He who is without anxiety waits without fear until his Lord comes. For what sort of love of Christ is it to fear his coming? Brothers, do we not have to blush for shame? We love him, yet we fear his coming. Are we really certain that we love him? Or do we love our sins more? Therefore let us hate our sins and love him who will exact punishment for them. He will come whether we wish it or not. Do not think that because he is not coming just now, he will not come at all. He will come, you know not when; and provided he finds you prepared, your ignorance of the time of his coming will not be held against you.

All the trees of the forest will exult. He has come the first time, and he will come again to judge the earth; he will find those rejoicing who believed in his first coming, for he has come.

He will judge the world with equity and the peoples in his truth. What are equity and truth? He will gather together with him for the judgement his chosen ones, but the others he will set apart; for he will place some on his right, others on his left. What is more equitable, what more true than that they should not themselves expect mercy from the judge, who themselves were unwilling to show mercy before the judge's coming. Those, however, who were willing to show mercy will be judged with mercy. For it will be said to those placed on his right: Come, blessed of my Father, take possession of the kingdom which has been prepared for you from the beginning of the world. And he reckons to their account their works of mercy: For I was hungry and you gave me food to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me drink.

What is imputed to those placed on his left side? That they refused to show mercy. And where will they go? Depart into the everlasting fire. The hearing of this condemnation will cause much wailing. But what has another psalm said? The just man will be held in everlasting remembrance; he will not fear the evil report. What is the evil report? Depart into the everlasting fire, which was prepared for the devil and his angels. Whoever rejoices to hear the good report will not fear the bad. This is equity, this is truth.

Or do you, because you are unjust, expect the judge not to be just? Or because you are a liar, will the truthful one not be true? Rather, if you wish to receive mercy, be merciful before he comes; forgive whatever has been done against you; give of your abundance. Of whose possessions do you give, if not from his? If you were to give of your own, it would be largesse; but since you give of his, it is restitution. For what do you have, that you have not received? These are the sacrifices most pleasing to God: mercy, humility, praise, peace, charity. Such as these, then, let us bring and, free from fear, we shall await the coming of the judge who will judge the world in equity and the peoples in his truth.

Excerpt from A commentary of St Augustine on Psalm 95 from the second reading for the the Office of Readings today.

PARISH EVENTS & NEWS

TOWN HALL MEETING

Join us this Wednesday, November 16, for our next town hall meeting in the Hurley main space! We will begin with refreshments at 6:30 p.m. and the meeting will begin at 7 p.m. We will go over the end of the fiscal year and quarter one financials, parking update, and more!

CHRISTMAS POINSETTIAS

Reserve a Christmas Poinsettia to decorate the sanctuary for Christmas in honor of someone you love. The poinsettias are $15 and can be purchased online or in person at the front office.

LIFE TEEN CORE TEAM

St. Augustine's Lifeteen ministry is searching for vibrant volunteers who are enthusiastic about their faith. If you are interested in working with teens and having a positive impact on their faith by helping plan and facilitate Life Nights, contact Lifeteen leader Jacob Clore at jacoblc1@vt.edu.

UPPER ROOM YOUNG ADULT GROUP

The Young Adult Group, Upper Room, meets every Thursday after the 5:30 p.m. Mass (usually) in Hurley Hall. For more information, join the Upper Room Facebook group or email Vincent Herzog at vincent@catholicgators.org.

KOFC BREAKFAST

As you, all may know, it's homecoming weekend. So if you are planning to eat brunch after this, good chance you'll have to wait in long lines anywhere you go. Thankfully the Knights of Columbus are hosting a fundraiser breakfast here at the church in the lounge to my left. Please stop by and enjoy a delicious breakfast at an affordable price. They accept cash and Venmo.

NEWS & EVENTS

ANGEL TREE PROJECT

This year we are working with Partnership For Strong Families to provide Christmas gifts for teens. Please take home an angel from our Christmas tree and return your gifts by December 20.

THE SOCIETY OF CATHOLIC SCIENTISTS

The Society of Catholic Scientists will be hosting their inaugural Gold Mass on Monday, November 14th, celebrating the Feast of St. Albert the Great, patron Saint of the Natural Sciences. Following the mass will be a series of talks on Faith & Science, along with food and drink. Hope you all can make it! Please email Alex Webber at alexwebber@ufl.edu

40 HOURS DEVOTION

Get ready for our 40 Hours Devotion! From 6:30 p.m. on Friday, December 2nd to 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, December 4th, the Blessed Sacrament will be Exposed in the Hurley chapel. Everyone is welcome, and we encourage you to sign up for an hour so that we can ensure there are at least two people staying with Jesus at all times.

SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND AND NEXT WEEKEND

This weekend we have a second collection for the maintenance of our Catholic cemeteries. Next week our special collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring permanent and positive change to their communities. Learn more about the CCHD at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

IMACULATA HOME SERVICES

House cleaner wanted at Immaculata Home Services. Our mission is to deliver a high quality service so owners and managers can provide a clean, fun, and memorable experience for their guests. Pay is $40-60 per job, part time 5-12 hours/week. Must have transportation and be available between 10am-4pm. Please contact 813-748-2286 for more information.

JOIN THE CHOIR

Calling all musicians singing from the congregation - we would love to have you share your time and talent with the choir! Rehearsals are 45 minutes before every Sunday Mass, including Vigil. Instrumentalists are encouraged to email Kori Spiropoulos at kori@catholicgators.org. Rehearsal for our annual Winter Concert will be starting September 12th at 6:15 p.m. right here, in the church; no experience necessary. Thank you!
