QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"The Eucharist is the sacrament of love: it signifies love, it produces love. The Eucharist is the consummation of the whole spiritual life."

—St. Thomas Aquinas

ST. AUGUSTINE REFLECTION

O precious and wonderful banquet!

Since it was the will of God's only-begotten Son that men should share in his divinity, he assumed our nature in order that by becoming man he might make men gods. Moreover, when he took our flesh he dedicated the whole of its substance to our salvation. He offered his body to God the Father on the altar of the cross as a sacrifice for our reconciliation. He shed his blood for our ransom and purification, so that we might be redeemed from our wretched state of bondage and cleansed from all sin. But to ensure that the memory of so great a gift would abide with us for ever, he left his body as food and his blood as drink for the faithful to consume in the form of bread and wine.

O precious and wonderful banquet, that brings us salvation and contains all sweetness! Could anything be of more intrinsic value? Under the old law it was the flesh of calves and goats that was offered, but here Christ himself, the true God, is set before us as our food. What could be more wonderful than this? No other sacrament has greater healing power; through it sins are purged away, virtues are increased, and the soul is enriched with an abundance of every spiritual gift. It is offered in the Church for the living and the dead, so that what was instituted for the salvation of all may be for the benefit of all. Yet, in the end, no one can fully express the sweetness of this sacrament, in which spiritual delight is tasted at its very source, and in which we renew the memory of that surpassing love for us which Christ revealed in his passion.

It was to impress the vastness of this love more firmly upon the hearts of the faithful that our Lord instituted this sacrament at the Last Supper. As he was on the point of leaving the world to go to the Father, after celebrating the Passover with his disciples, he left it as a perpetual memorial of his passion. It was the fulfilment of ancient figures and the greatest of all his miracles, while for those who were to experience the sorrow of his departure, it was destined to be a unique and abiding consolation.

From "On the feast of Corpus Christi", by St Thomas Aquinas from today's Office of Readings.

PARISH EVENTS & NEWS

ENCOUNTER SCHOOL OF MINISTRY

Most people don't experience supernatural moments in their everyday lives. There is a big disconnect between their own experiences and those in stories of scripture or the lives of saints. If deep down you know Jesus Christ did not die for a powerless church, then you may be looking for the more that is promised by God. The Encounter School of Ministry can radically renew your mind and transform your life. This two-year certificate program is coming to the Gainesville Satellite campus this fall. This is an intra-parish ministry, supported by our bishop! For info visit encounterschool.org/gainesville.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION TODAY

We have our Corpus Christ Eucharistic Procession today after the 11:30 a.m. Mass. We will process the Blessed Sacrament around the Student Center building

SPIRIT AND TRUTH GENDER AND SEXUALITY MINISTRY

Do you have questions about gender and sexuality? Do you experience same-sex attraction or gender discordance and desire to live out God's plan for gender, sexuality, and marriage? Spirit and Truth offers a community of individuals with similar experiences striving to live like Christ together through Christian book clubs. For more details, check us out our website, email spiritandtruth@catholicgators.org, or talk to Jessica Bailes.

UPPER ROOM YOUNG ADULT GROUP

The Young Adult Group, Upper Room, meets every Thursday after the 5:30 p.m. Mass (usually) in Hurley Hall. For more information, join the Upper Room Facebook group or email Vincent Herzog at vincent@catholicgators.org.

MINISTERIO HISPANO

DESPEDIDA PADRE DAVID RUCHINSKI

Queremos expresar nuestro más profundo agradecimiento al Padre David por todo el apoyo brindado durante estos 15 años a nuestra comunidad hispana y a la parroquia, reflejado en eventos tales como las celebraciones de la Providencia, Guadalupe, Hispanidad, entre otros. Cabe recalcar también la formación religiosa como catequista, ante la evidente necesidad de sacramentos para niños, jóvenes y adultos de nuestra comunidad, que dio como resultado uno de los números más altos de personas recibiendo sacramentos, incluido el del matrimonio. También aprendimos de su liderazgo y facilidad para manejar situaciones difíciles o incómodas, así como su constante respaldo y motivación para celebrar en forma bilingüe las fiestas relevantes de nuestra religión católica. Igualmente, recordamos su liderazgo de fe durante la etapa crítica del COVID en la que, a pesar de todas las dificultades, ninguna de nuestras misas en español fue interrumpida, y aunque fueron realizadas de manera digital, podíamos hacernos partícipes de las mismas. Sus homilías fueron siempre reconfortantes y eran un llamado permanente a perseverar en la fe en esos momentos inciertos. Otro rasgo de su personalidad es la ingeniosidad para las situaciones cotidianas de la vida, plasmado en su recordada frase “Habemus Parking”. En este momento, tiene un nuevo llamado en la parroquia Saint Joseph (Jacksonville), la cual es la más diversa y grande de nuestra diócesis. Es una asignación compleja, por lo que contará con nuestras constantes oraciones para que la Santísima Trinidad lo siga iluminando en su noble labor como sacerdote.
