FROM FR. JOE...

We welcome Fr. Scott back to Malone! (No one's happier to see him come home than I am!) He returned from his pilgrimage on Tuesday.

Ralph Waldo Emerson once wrote, "Earth laughs in flowers." At this time of year, the North Country sure is in full bloom, bringing wide smiles to many faces. Why not also bring some of that beauty to our sanctuaries? If you have flowers from your garden that you might like to share, lending color and joy to our altars, please let us know. We'd love to have them!

In this back-to-school season, don't forget to get your kids and grandchildren registered for our religious education program, especially second graders who will be preparing for First Holy Communion, and sixth graders who will be beginning the two-year preparation for Confirmation. The program starts in early September, and we want to be ready to welcome our young parishioners to another year of growing in faith and love for Christ.

A Prayer for our Earth

Pope Francis recently designated September 1st as a World Day of Prayer for Creation—a day for people to "reaffirm their personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care, and to implore his help for the protection of creation as well as his pardon for the sins committed against the world in which we live."

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures. You embrace with your tenderness all that exists. Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty. Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one. O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes. Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction. Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth. Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light. We thank you for being with us each day. Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace. (Prayer from Pope Francis' encyclical, Laudato Si.)

Are you interested in becoming Catholic? Or do you know someone who is?

The process of inquiry for those considering membership in the Catholic Church is beginning again here at St. André's. Whether you've still got a lot of questions, or think you might be ready to make a life-long, life-changing commitment, we'd love to have you join us! Please contact the parish office and let us know about your interest.

Love is our Mission 8th World Meeting of Families September 22-27, 2015 Philadelphia, PA

8. A Home for the Wounded Heart

Many people, especially today, face painful situations resulting from poverty, disability, illness and addictions, unemployment, and the loneliness of advanced age. But divorce and same-sex attraction impact the life of the family in different but powerful ways. Christian families and networks of families should be sources of mercy, safety, friendship and support for those struggling with these issues.

Pope Francis will be participating in the WMF as part of his apostolic visit to the United States in September.

Check out the Media Racks...

Please check out the media racks in each of our churches. New offerings are making their way to the media racks and more are on the way. In addition to our regular offerings of monthly publications, we have just added something special. Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati was a young Italian "man who enjoyed good friends, hiking, skiing, museums and music". This blessed of the church, now the patron of a new apostolate at St. Andre's parish, "found that deep prayer, service to the poor, and a passion for bringing others to Christ led to a life of purpose, peace, and happiness." Though he was only 24 when he died in 1925, he has left a rich legacy. His cause for sainthood progresses. Find out more about him in the pamphlets and CDs we have just added to the media racks.

"There are three kinds of giving: grudge giving says, I have to; duty giving says, I ought to; thanksgiving says, I want to. The first comes from constraint; the second from a sense of obligation; the third from a full heart."
