From Fr. Joe...

Last Sunday's Holy Harvest Festival was simply amazing! If you missed it, you missed a real treat. Not only was the weather spectacular, and having it on the church grounds a wonderful setting, but we served more meals than last year, and a large number of people stayed around straight through till 3:00pm, listening to the music and playing games. We raised $91 for our food pantry at the dunking booth...which gives you an idea of just how many times folks (including my own dear mother) soaked the pastor. What a great day! Many, many thanks to our parish staff and so many volunteers who made it all happen.

Speaking of volunteers: I was positively astounded by the response to our call for volunteers to help with our Capital Campaign. I was hoping for 30 or so (and figured it might take us a couple of weeks to get there), but 63 of you have already stepped forward. That's 10% of you who attend Sunday Mass! If you'd still like to volunteer, more cards are available at the church entrances. And don't forget to RSVP for the upcoming receptions.

You'll see the news that Catholic Charities will be moving to a new location in the coming months. This has been under consideration for awhile now. Their current quarters are just too small for the work they're doing, and having more space will also allow them to expand what they can offer. At the same time, St. André's is in need of parish office space as we look to the eventual sale of St. Joseph's Church and rectory. (Despite the rumors around town, St. Joseph's has not been sold—not even close.) Stay tuned for details as things move forward.

Last, but most certainly not least... This week, we say both "welcome back" and "farewell" to Fr. Scott Belina. This very fine priest has been a treasured coworker to your's truly during his three years at St. André's (the longest I've been able to hang on to a parochial vicar), and he's become a good friend. We've all been touched by his ministry among us, which has revealed a man of kindness and compassion, with great strength and a good sense of humor, striving to be holy and help others to do the same. We've been so happy to support him with our prayers and sacrifices these past 6 months, and now we want to assure him that the same will follow him as he begins his new assignment at St. Peter's Parish in Massena and Louisville. Thank you, Fr. Scott! We won't say, "We'll miss you," since we hope you'll be back to see us often.

- (3) A Community Meeting—exploring signs and symbols—is scheduled for Sunday, October 28.
- (4) You can still sign up! Please call the parish office for more information.

Malone Catholic Charities to Re-locate Office

For many years the office of Malone Catholic Charities has been located at 57 Rennie Street, a property owned by St. André Bessette Parish. Malone Catholic Charities will be relocating to new accommodations and is currently in the process of finalizing that move.

Malone Catholic Charities Area Director, Joelle Lamica, said, "The important feature for our new location is that it is accessible to our clients and the space can accommodate the wide range of programs we have developed over the years." Lamica further stated, "The Good Samaritan Food Pantry will remain in its current location at 57 Rennie Street under the management of the parish."

Lamica stated that Malone Catholic Charities will retain services currently offered and staff is excited that the new space may provide opportunity to expand services to youth and seniors, as well as other services in Malone. The office will be relocated by the end of the year and the new location to be announced soon.

What Happened to the Sign of Peace?

The exchange of a friendly handshake or a hug shortly before Holy Communion is a moment of peace and joy—two precious things of which every victim of sexual abuse has been robbed. Throughout this month of September, we will omit the sign of peace to stand in solidarity with all who have been hurt by the crimes and cover-up of members of the Catholic clergy, and as a vivid reminder of the urgent need for us to be real instruments of Christ's peace in our broken Church and troubled world.

VESPERS*The Evening Prayer of the Church*Tuesday, 6:00pm ~ Notre Dame Chapel*Open to All ~ Sponsored by André's Brothers*ALL WOMEN WELCOME

All women welcome! St. Catherine of Siena Scripture Sisters will gather once again on Tuesday evenings to share faith and fellowship. This session will focus on the Holy Spirit, and will utilize the DVD series THE WILD GOOSE (the Holy Spirit). A Celtic term for the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity, The Wild Goose is hosted by Fr. Dave Pivonka, TOR, and thoughtfully and prayerfully leads participants to a deeper understanding of the Holy Spirit. The meetings are scheduled for 6:30PM, Tuesday evenings at Frassati House, September 25th; October 2nd, 16th, and 23rd; November 6th, 13th, and 27th; and December 4th. For details and registration please go to: www.rcdony.org/familyevent.A Prayer for Healing

Hear the humble prayer of your people, God our Father, as we implore your mercy. Bring healing to all who have suffered physical, emotional, or sexual abuse at the hands of your ministers and restore them to fullness of life. Forgive your Church for the immense evil that has been committed and the great harm that has been done. Grant the grace of true repentance to all who have broken sacred trust, destroyed precious innocence, and failed to protect your beloved children entrusted to their pastoral care. Reconcile us to one another and never allow us be parted from you. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

*"The Lord heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds." (Psalm 147:3)PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

Protecting our children is a priority in our parish, and it's everyone's responsibility. To report abuse: If you have a complaint of suspected misconduct involving Catholic clergy, religious, employees, or volunteers, contact Terrianne Yanulavich, diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator (518-483-3261 or terrianneyanulavich@yahoo.com) or Fr. Christopher Carrara, Vicar for Pastoral Personnel (315-393-2920 ext. 1340). Making a report to the Diocese of Ogdensburg in no way means that you should not make a report to police or child protective agencies.

For those who are unfamiliar with our churches, did you know...

...that there are a number of handicapped parking spaces and a fully accessible entrance at the east end of Notre Dame Church? ...that there is a restroom with a changing table at Notre Dame, found through the doorway near the statue of St. André? ...that a restroom in the rectory—accessed by the front door—is available for use whenever St. Helen's Church is open? If you cannot find what you need, please do not be afraid to ask. We want everyone to feel right at home here in St. André's Parish!

MINISTRY SCHEDULE

It is time to schedule the various ministries for the next few months beginning in October. The Ministry Schedule for the parish for the next three to four months will be prepared soon. If you have any special requests...dates that you would like to be scheduled, dates that should be avoided, times that you will be away, changes in your Mass time preferences...please let Bob Main (thejudge@twcny.rr.com) know before September 23. Many thanks for all that you do for St. Andre's.
