Adult Faith Formation

Scripture and Religious Study – We will observe our practice of Lectio Divina of the upcoming Sunday Gospel in our Scripture and Religious Studies meetings over the summer. Lectio Divina will begin June 14 for the Monday group and June 16 for the Wednesday group. These meetings will be online, so email Sean to receive the meeting link. Our fall Scripture studies will meet in person in the Church Hall and are now posted on the Scripture and Religious Studies page of our website. <https://stjoesmarion.org/scripture-study>.

Right to Life – The Hyde Amendment has been in place for over 45 years helping to prevent taxpayer money from funding abortions. There currently is a movement in government trying to overturn the Hyde Amendment. If you'd like to sign a petition in support of keeping the Hyde Amendment and fight for the right to life for the unborn, the USCCB has made it easy for you to do using this website - <https://www.notaxpayerabortion.com>.

Eucharistic Adoration – We have Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament every Monday from 7:00 AM to 9:00 PM. We invite you to come and spend time with Jesus whenever you can. We especially need a few committed adorers from 1:00 to 2:00 PM. Please contact Becky Bostwick at (319) 550-2884 or bjbostwick@gmail.com.

2021 - 2022 Youth Faith Formation Registration (K-12)

Go to the parish website at: stjoesmarion.org
Grow in Faith tab, Youth Faith Formation (K-12)

Legacy Corner Did you write your will when your children were born and now you're empty nesters with the same will in place? If so, you are among countless others who need to update it. Our lives change, our financial circumstances change, our families grow, and we say goodbye to others in our family. You don't have to rewrite your will, oftentimes you just have to add an inexpensive addition or supplement to it. If you would like more information about leaving a legacy gift, please contact Doug Brock at the parish office at 377-4869 to speak confidentially about your wishes. If you would like information about gift planning, please contact our planning partner at the Catholic Foundation at : (563) 552-0176 or CFAD@OurCFAD.org.

FUN DAYS 2021 IS HERE!

June 4 - 6. Please join us for fun, games, music, food and beverages. We look forward to seeing you at this event celebrating faith, family, and community.

To contact the Fun Days Executive Committee, please phone (319) 774-8719 or send an email to: info@StJosephFunDays.org.

Women's Connection

Women's Connection will meet Thursday, June 10, at Taube Park, (31st St. and McGowan), for our annual picnic. Please plan to arrive at 12:00 noon. Bring a sack lunch and your own drink. All widows of the parish are invited. For more information, please contact Sally Wilkinson at 373-5484. In case of rain we will meet in the church hall.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Have you ever wanted to do "more"? With the blessing of our area care centers finally reopening to outside visitors comes the chore of rebuilding our corps of volunteer ministers who have been bringing the Eucharist to the residents of the 12 facilities which St. Joseph's ministers in. While we have been successful in keeping a pretty limited presence it is my dream to be able to have sufficient ministers that each would only be responsible for perhaps one visit each month.

To that end, I am praying to find up to 24 new ministers who would give an hour each month to bring Jesus to those who are unable to participate at Mass in person. That's a big ask, but nothing is impossible and the parish family of St. Joseph's has always been generous with their time and talents.

Prayerfully consider if God may be calling you into this service. Training and support in your ministry would be joyfully provided.

At this point most of the facilities are limiting to "door to door" Eucharist, although some are open to "Word & Communion" services, either way...Do not be afraid.

I can also guarantee your own heart will be filled with the joy and thanksgiving expressed by each of those you will visit. Think about it. Pray about it...then call me!
377-4869 - Deacon Jeff

June 6, 2021 Corpus ChristiOpening Song: Table of Plenty

Come to the feast of heaven and earth!

Come to the table of plenty!

God will provide for all that we need,

Here at the table of plenty.

My bread will ever sustain you through days of sorrow and woe.

My wine will flow like a sea of gladness
to flood the depths of your soul. (refrain)

Reading IEx 24:3-8

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us." Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar. Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do." Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

Responsorial Psalm116:12-13, 15-16, 17-18

R. (13) I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

How shall I make a return to the LORD
for all the good he has done for me?

The cup of salvation I will take up,
and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

Precious in the eyes of the LORD
is the death of his faithful ones.

I am your servant, the son of your handmaid;
you have loosed my bonds.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving,
and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

My vows to the LORD I will pay
in the presence of all his people.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

Reading IIHeb 9:11-15

Brothers and sisters: When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption.

(cont) For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God. For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

GospelMk 14:12-16, 22-26

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'" Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there." The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover. While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Communion Antiphon*John 6:57*

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

Closing Song: Companions on the Journey

We are companions on the journey
breaking bread and sharing life;
And in the love we bear is the hope we share
For we believe in the love of our God,
We believe in the love of our God.

No longer strangers to each other,
No longer strangers in God's house;
We are fed and we are nourished
By the strength of those who care,
By the strength of those who care

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—Today we celebrate the solemnity commonly known as Corpus Christi. It is a feast that focuses on our devotion to the Eucharist instituted by Christ at the Last Supper. We are encouraged to take the Eucharist to the world by living its effects in our lives and through periodic public processions. Devotion to the Eucharist is important, especially during Eucharistic Adoration. Today's celebration gives one pause to consider beginning a practice of Eucharistic Adoration or resuming what you once did and then set it aside for one reason or another. We are blessed to have Eucharistic Adoration in the church from 7:00 AM to 9:00 PM on Mondays. Do stop by and spend time with our Lord or sign-up for a dedicated hour of adoration.

Return to Weekend Mass—Welcome to all who have returned to Mass this weekend especially as the obligation to attend Sunday Mass has been reinstated. It is wonderful to see how our community continues to make strides in coming together during the pandemic.

We've come a long way since we resumed public Masses at the end of May last year. Currently, we have sections in the church to accommodate those who will not be wearing masks or observing social distancing and for those who will wear masks and practice social distancing. There are signs in the church to help you find a seat.

You choose whether or not you will wear a mask and social distance while at Mass. The guidance we've provided regarding what you chose has been given by the Archbishop at: dbqarch.org/sunday-opportunity, my Pentecost homily at: stjoesmarion.org/podcasts, and what the CDC offers at: cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/daily-life-coping/participate-in-activities.html. Prayerfully call upon the Holy Spirit to unify us in our diversity and to guide you to what you will do in charity and for the common good.

Fun Days—Welcome to all who have joined us for Fun Days, and most especially to our friends and guests. It is wonderful that we can be together this weekend especially as the pandemic has prevented us from doing so many activities over the past year. Fun Days this year is a real milestone for us as the community gathers together for this large event. Please enjoy one another's company as we give thanks to God for the gift of being together.

Fr. Martin Coolidge—was ordained to the priesthood last week and will be with us the weekend of June 12-13 to celebrate the Masses. What a great gift! Please plan to be here to worship God and to congratulate Fr. Coolidge upon his ordination to the priesthood.

Out of the Office—I will be away on break after the last Mass on June 20 through June 24.
