July 25, 2021 Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary TimeOpening Song: We Come to Your Feast

We place upon your table a gleaming cloth of white;
 The weaving of our stories, the fabric of our lives
 The dreams of those before us, the ancient hopeful cries,
 The promise of our future; our needing and our nurture lie here before our eyes.

We come to your feast, we come to your feast;
 The young and the old, the frightened, the bold,
 the greatest and the least.

We come to your feast, we come to your feast
 With the fruit of our lands and the work of our hands,
 we come to your feast.

Reading I2 Kgs 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

Responsorial PsalmPs 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
 and let your faithful ones bless you.

Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you,
 and you give them their food in due season;
 you open your hand
 and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is just in all his ways
 and holy in all his works.

The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
 to all who call upon him in truth.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

Reading IIEph 4:1-6

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

GospelJn 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

Communion AntiphonPs. 103 (102): 2

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.

Closing Song: City of God

Awake from your slumber! Arise from your sleep!
 A new day is dawning for all those who weep.
 The people in darkness have seen a great light.
 The Lord of our longing has conquered the night.

Let us build the city of God.
 May our tears be turned into dancing!
 For the Lord, our light and our love,
 has turned the night into day!

We are sons of the morning, we are daughters of day.
 The one who has loved us has brightened our way.
 The Lord of all kindness has called us to be
 A light for his people to set their hearts free. (refrain)

35th Anniversary Thank You—Thanks to the Parish Life Committee and all who had a role in my 35th anniversary celebration after the 10:30 AM Mass on Sunday, July 18th. It was fantastic! I was awed and touched by those who attended in person or who wanted to attend but couldn't for various reasons. Thank you for the love and support you offered to me as a priest and as your pastor. I am grateful for the letters, cards, notes, and emails you sent, the gifts you gave and the greetings you offered before and after the Masses. I am humbled by what you shared and did and by your presence and prayers. Thank you!

I celebrated Mass on the actual date of my anniversary, July 19th, with a few priests near my hometown of Mason City, IA, which is where I first felt the stirrings of my vocation. Signs and people of my past were within easy reach of my memory and I experienced a sense of peace and gratitude. This was a gentle, reaffirming grace the Lord gave me on my anniversary. So, here's to the next thirty-five years of priesthood or however many God wishes to give, lived one day at a time, right now, with you!

Extraordinary Form of the Mass—You may be aware that Pope Benedict XVI gave permission for priests to offer Mass in Latin for Catholics using what is called the Extraordinary Form, that is, the way the Mass was offered in Latin before the Second Vatican Council. Since then, groups of Catholics have been drawn to this way of offering Mass and have benefited spiritually from it.

On Friday of last week, Pope Francis legislated new norms regarding the Extraordinary Form in terms of the role of the diocesan bishop, the priests authorized to celebrate it and where it may be offered:

www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/events/event.dir.html/content/vaticanevents/en/2021/7/16/motuproprio-traditionis-custodes.html. He didn't issue the norms arbitrarily, but only after consultation with the bishops throughout the world. The Holy Father explained that he created the new norms because some drawn to the Extraordinary Form claim that the last pope to be validly elected was Pope Pius XII and they resist or deny the Second Vatican Council and the way of celebrating Mass which we do today.

The new norms will probably go unnoticed by the majority of Catholics throughout the world. There are, however, faithful here in the metro area who have been affected. The Extraordinary Rite is offered at Immaculate Conception in Cedar Rapids. My experience of Catholics in the metro area who participate in the Extraordinary Rite is that few if any deny the Second Vatican Council or that Pope Francis is the legitimate pope. They simply love the liturgy in Latin and the reverence and beauty of the Extraordinary Form. The Archbishop will be working to assist those affected by the new norms in the Archdiocese. If you know anyone affected, a kind word of affection and support will go a long way.

Bread of Life Discourse—St. Mark's gospel, from which we are reading this liturgical year, is the shortest of the four gospels. A consequence of its length is that reading from Mark's gospel would conclude well before the end of the liturgical year.

This becomes a blessing because Chapter Six from St. John's gospel will be proclaimed over the next several weeks to fill the gap. We call it the Bread of Life Discourse. This chapter is part of the fundamental basis for our belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Listen intently these next weeks and ask for the grace that your belief in the Eucharist be reaffirmed, deepened and intensified.

Out of the Office—I will be on break after the last Mass on Sunday, August 1st to Monday, August 9th.
