The Churches of Marion Food Pantry Board would like to thank St Joseph Church for their generous support in helping us complete 40 successful years. The pantry is completely staffed by volunteers and all donations are used to purchase food and hygiene products for our neighbors in need. Since January 2022, the number of people utilizing the Marion pantry has doubled to over 1,200 people monthly. Your contributions enabled us to increase the amount of food we distribute so that every family who relies on the Pantry has food on their table.

If you are interested in volunteering at the pantry, our current needs include extra people to help with our Monday Hy-Vee food pickups, HACAP food pickups of 500-800 pounds of food on both Mondays and Wednesdays, and weekly or biweekly bread pickups of 6-9 trays of bread. If you are able to move a lot of heavy/awkward stuff and have a vehicle capable of helping and a schedule that will accommodate, please email the pantry at: churchesofmarionfoodpantry@gmail.com

JOIN US FOR Healing Prayer

The next Healing Prayer gathering will take place with Adoration on Monday, August 15th from 6:00-7:00 PM in the church. There will be small prayer teams available to pray with you individually and to intercede for you and your needs.

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the midst of them." - Matthew 18:20

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW)

Matthew 19:14 Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

Children's Liturgy of the Word, or CLOW, is an important ministry for the young children of our parish – from preschool through their 1st Holy Communion in 2nd grade. By providing a Liturgy of the Word geared toward young minds and hearts, we are able to help our little ones grow in knowledge and relationship with our LORD.

Being a CLOW minister is a bite-sized commitment with big benefits to our community. The CLOW leader welcomes the children, proclaims the Gospel, shares a prepared reflection and/or activity with the group, then leads them in proclaiming the Creed and offering up prayers for the Church and our world. A CLOW assistant provides hands-on help while the children are gathered together. With just a little preparation and 20-25 minutes on a Sunday morning, we can answer Christ's call to let the children come to Him.

If you are passionate about your Faith, have a gift for interacting with children, love the Word of God, and want to share His message with our young ones, this may be the ministry for you. (Please note that all volunteers are required to complete a background check and Safe Environment training.) For more information, please contact Nicole Trapani at StJoesCLOW@gmail.com. May God bless you as you discern His call for our community!

This format for the Scripture Study groups will take place for the remainder of the summer so join us when you can.

Wednesdays: 9:15-11:15 AM

New Adult Faith Formation Director—I am pleased to announce that Bridget Becker has been hired as the new Director of Adult Faith Formation for our parish. Bridget has worked in two parishes, the most recent of which is in Fairmont, MN, while serving in a variety of roles.

Bridget's position at St. Joseph will be comprised of being Director of the R.C.I.A., working with young adults and being a resource person for various adult education efforts. She is slated to begin work here on or about August 11th. It is a real blessing for us to have Bridget join the parish staff. Please support her ministry with your prayers and participation in the educational opportunities that will be offered at St. Joseph.

August 15th: The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary—as this solemnity falls on a Monday this year, it is not a Holy Day of Obligation.

9-8-8 Mental Health Crisis Hotline—Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Dubuque has notified us that a crisis hotline is now available nationwide for people experiencing a mental health crisis. They can simply call or text 9-8-8. This nationwide crisis hotline offers 24/7 access to trained crisis counselors who can help people experiencing mental health-related distress. That could include thoughts of suicide, mental health or substance use crisis, or any other kind of emotional distress.

While not a crisis counseling center, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Dubuque offers professional mental health counseling across the 30 counties of the Archdiocese. Counseling is available in-person or via telehealth for adults, children, couples, and families.

Click (<https://tinyurl.com/9eafm76e>) or call 800.772.2758 for more information on Counseling Services at Catholic Charities.

Supportive Services for Pregnant Mothers from Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Dubuque -- Following the Supreme Court's historic reversal of Roe v. Wade, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Dubuque wants to remind pregnant women and their families that supportive services are available through Catholic Charities and other social service agencies. Catholic Charities has always provided free and confidential counseling to expectant mothers, as well as Case Management services to help connect women to supportive services and financial assistance in their area. We can also help to connect women to adoption agencies if this is their desire. Pregnancy counseling services are available via phone, telehealth, or in person. We also provide free counseling for individuals struggling with the after-effects of abortion through our Project Rachel Ministry. Please call 800-772-2758 for pregnancy counseling, Case Management services, and Project Rachel counseling or visit CatholicCharitiesDubuque.org.

Be Inspired and Learn about the Eucharist—This year, as part of the National Eucharistic Revival, we are called into a deeper personal relationship with Jesus through the Most Holy Eucharist. Please consult these resources which are intended to educate, edify and inspire you about the Eucharist (<https://www.eucharisticrevival.org/learn-resources>).

Marriage Enrichment

Recently the Church celebrated the Memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, identified by tradition as the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Pray to Joachim and Anne for the gift of family life. The family reflects the mutual responsibility parents and children have to love one another and lead one another to holiness.

We are children of the prophets and of the covenant that God made with our ancestors, when he said to Abraham: "In your offspring all the families of the earth shall be blessed." (Acts

3:25) Treasure each moment with your spouse and children. Rejoice in the gift of your family and pray for God to bless and protect your spouse and children.
