Great Things Area 3: Safe, Welcoming,
Family-Like Atmosphere

Marriage Enrichment

"Humbly regard others as more important than yourselves" (Phil 2:3).

Passages such as this give pause for us, to reflect on how we consider the virtue of Humility in our lives and in our marriages. A Virtue in the teaching of the Church is synonymous with 'goodness'; an act of doing good. Through our baptismal calling we are to serve in the example of Christ. In our daily lives and through our marriages, we live out that baptismal calling in service to those in need with kindness and charity. Along with your spouse instill the virtue of humility in your children. Teach them how to give humbly of themselves, to serve others as Christ himself served. By the humility of the act, the reward is the joy which we receive by helping someone out.

In his encyclical Redemptoris Missio (on the Church's missionary mandate) Saint Pope John Paul II wrote: "The witness of a Christian life is the first and irreplaceable form of mission" (42). This witness involves "exercising humility; practicing charity toward the poor, weak and suffering; and imitating Christ's own simplicity of life" (43).

Humility is a great asset in marriage, provided it is not laziness in disguise. "I don't care. Whatever you want." can be gracious, or it can mean you are overly passive. Let us strive for a mission of humble service because it is through service that "We are the Lord's".

St. Joseph Middle School Work Day - October 25

Christ's mission was to love and serve. As Catholics it is ingrained in everything we do as the St. Joseph Parish Family. This fall, the St. Joseph Middle School would like to offer raking and yard cleaning services to members of the parish. They will provide the rakes, the lawn bags, and the energy of youth to free your yard of leaves. The work day is scheduled for the afternoon of Wednesday, October 25th. With limited spaces available, we will be prioritizing those who need the extra help this fall. Don't hesitate to call if you are interested. Please contact Deacon Jeff Volker at 319-377-4869 by Wednesday, October 18th.

Catholic Worker House Meals

Help feed the hungry! Every 2nd Monday of the month, the St. Joseph Social Justice Committee & friends collaborate to provide a meal for 25 children and adults staying at the St. John of the Cross Catholic Worker House in Cedar Rapids. Sign up to provide part of a meal, then drop off your ready-to-eat contribution at St. Joseph Catholic Church (main front doors) between 4:00-4:30 PM on that second Monday. Our volunteer transporter will leave St. Joe's at 4:30 PM to ensure that all the dinner components will arrive by 5:00 PM.

Thank you for your generosity!

Legacy Corner

Life insurance is a way to make a larger gift to your church than you might otherwise be able to afford. Consider naming your church as a beneficiary of any life insurance policy. If you would like more information about leaving a legacy gift to St. Joseph, contact Doug Brock at 319-377-4869. If you would like information about gift planning, please contact our planning partner at the Catholic Foundation at 563-552-0176 or CFAD@OurCFAD.org.

Respect Life Sunday/Month—This weekend, we are observing Respect Life Sunday which inaugurates a month of observances and reflections upon respecting life from the womb to the tomb. Each year, the Chair of the Committee for Pro-Life Activities of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, publishes a letter in observance of Respect Life Sunday. This year, Bishop Michael Burbidge writes from the perspective of radical solidarity with women. Please find below the first one of two parts of his letter.

Since 1973, the year the Supreme Court legalized abortion nationwide in Roe v. Wade, the month of October has been set aside by the U.S. bishops as a time to focus on protecting God's precious gift of human life. While we thank God that the terrible reign of Roe has ended, we also recognize that abortion still continues in most states and is aggressively promoted at the federal level. A great many prayers, sacrifices, and good works are still desperately needed to transform a culture of death into a culture of life. Our public witness, our marching, and our advocacy must continue, yet laws alone will not end the tragedy of abortion.

While ending legalized abortion remains our preeminent priority, the most immediate way to save babies and mothers from abortion is to thoroughly surround mothers in need with life-giving support and personal accompaniment. This is radical solidarity.

St. John Paul II first defined "radical solidarity" in this way: "In firmly rejecting 'pro-choice' it is necessary to become courageously 'pro woman,' promoting a choice that is truly in favor of women. ... The only honest stance, in these cases, is that of radical solidarity with the woman. It is not right to leave her alone."

Being in radical solidarity with women who are pregnant or raising children in difficult circumstances means putting our love for them into action and putting their needs before our own. Pope Francis reminds us that solidarity "refers to something more than a few sporadic acts of generosity. It presumes the creation of a new mindset," a transformation within our own hearts.

This new mindset requires that we come alongside vulnerable mothers in profound friendship, compassion, and support for both them and their preborn children. It means addressing the fundamental challenges that lead an expectant mother to believe she is unable to welcome the child God has entrusted to her.

This includes collective efforts within our dioceses, parishes, schools and local communities, engagement in the public square, and pursuit of policies that help support both women and their preborn babies. It all the more so requires our individual, personal commitment to helping mothers in our own communities secure material, emotional, and spiritual support for embracing the gift of life. Radical solidarity means moving beyond the status quo and out of our comfort zones. . .

The final part of his letter will be in the bulletin next week.
