Advent GIVING PROJECT

It is that time of the year again. We have been very fortunate in the past to be able to help so many people in our Parish Community through the Advent Giving Project. We are asking for gift cards, as well as gifts, for our families who are participating. A large tree is at the entrance of Church and the two smaller trees are at the side entrances. Please grab a tag from one of the trees before November 26th.

Please drop off your gifts and cards at the entrance of the church the weekends of Nov. 25/26 and Dec. 2/3. There will be a receptacle for the gift cards. Please attach the tags to the gifts.

Marriage Enrichment

"...share the Master's joy" (Mt 25:21)

The parable of the Master entrusting his servants with talents, is an opportunity for us to consider how we regard and manage the talents (gifts) with which

God has entrusted to each of us. We are the recipients and caretakers of God's many gifts, all that we have comes through His generosity. Matthew is highlighting the incompatibility of serving God (master) should we be clinging (i.e. being a slave to) our material wealth.

The Gospel challenges us to not treat our wealth and material possessions to our own benefit, rather to surrender ... to consider the needs of our spouse, families and others first. With your spouse, look for opportunities to demonstrate to your family how to be charitable, honest, trustworthy especially towards those in need.

Totus Tuus Missionaries Needed

Do you know any college age men and women from your parish who would be great role models for younger Catholics? The Archdiocese is looking for college-aged disciples of Jesus to serve on teams during the summer of 2024. Totus Tuus missionaries serve parishes across the Archdiocese throughout the summer leading songs, teaching, performing skits, and sharing witness talks with the children and youth of the Archdiocese. This is a paid position with training and most expenses provided during the summer. Applications can be found at www.dbqarch.org/Totus-Tuus. Please contact Joanne Pohland (j.pohland@dbqarch.org) with any questions.

Pastor's Pen

The Parable of the Talents—You probably recognized it when you heard it. The master goes away for a long time, but before he does so, gives his servants different amounts of talents—currency—to invest while he is away. Two servants made a profit, the other didn't because he kept the talent in fear of his master. When the master returned, the two who made a profit were rewarded, and the other was punished.

We know something about investments. We are advised from an early age to invest your money wisely in preparation for retirement. There's nothing like compound interest on investments. But, the lesson from the gospel isn't talking about investing money, but rather being leaven for the world. Act on your faith and Jesus' commission to evangelize. Really, it is being a good steward of the gift of faith you received at baptism. Grow in your faith and share the fruits of it in your corner of the world. That is what we do in preparation for when Jesus, the master, returns at the end of the world.

Requirements for Anointing of the Sick-- Candidates for Anointing:

- Sick children may be anointed if they have sufficient use of reason (reached the age of 7) to be strengthened by this sacrament.

Advent—begins the weekend of December 2-3, 2023. It will be very short, only three weeks long as Christmas Eve falls on a Sunday this year.

There will be special opportunities to go to confession in the metro area. Here's the schedule:

VESPERS VIGIL: WELCOMING OUR NEW ARCHBISHOP IN PRAYER

By Cassie Bird

As part of the celebration of the installation of Archbishop Zinkula, a Vespers Vigil open to the public was held the night before the Installation Mass on Tuesday, October 17 at the Cathedral of St. Raphael.

Vespers begins with two psalms, followed by a canticle from the New Testament. It gives thanks for the day that has just passed and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God. According to the USCCB, "In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to 'pray always.' Through this prayer, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and prayers of intercession for the needs of the world."

Q & A Fr. Greg Bahl, Dir. of Worship

Fr. Greg Bahl is the Director of Worship for the Archdiocese of Dubuque, and therefore had an instrumental role in arranging the Vespers Evening Prayer as well as the Installation Mass of Archbishop Zinkula.

Can you provide an overview of the Vespers prayer and its significance in the installation of a new archbishop?

Vespers, known simply as "Evening Prayer", is from the Liturgy of the Hours or "Divine Office". Comprised of several rites throughout the day, the Divine Office is a prayer of the whole Church that both prepares for and flows from the Mass. While clergy and the religious orders make solemn promises to pray the Office throughout the day, all Catholics are encouraged to pray it as well. Vespers is offered in the evening or "when evening approaches and the day is already far spent ... that 'we may give thanks for what has been given us, or what we have done well, during the day.'" (General Instruction of the Liturgy of the Hours). Much of the prayer of Vespers is also focused on hope in the new day to follow. So—gratitude and hope!—how appropriate to vigil the installation of Archbishop Zinkula with Vespers.

Top: A large crowd prays at the Cathedral of St. Raphael on Oct. 17

What is the significance of Vespers beginning the installation process of a new bishop/archbishop in a diocese/archdiocese?

During the installation, the Vespers prayer begins a vigil, where we begin a prayer at night that culminates in prayer the next day. By their nature, a vigil symbolizes prayers of faith, hope, and sacrifice. They are an offering of faith, for they are offered in the face of uncertainty, the dark of night. Vigils are always an offering of hope, for a new day will dawn. Vigils are also a sacrifice, for they are at a time that is usually set aside to tend to the self, the usual time to prepare for a night's rest, for example.

What is the historical and traditional importance of Vespers in this context?

Next to the Holy Mass, the Liturgy of the Hours is one of the oldest ritual practices in Christianity! It is an expression of the "one, holy, Catholic, and apostolic Church" we profess every Sunday during the Creed. Beginning the installation with Vespers, we express our unbroken connection with the earliest Christians and the teaching that bishops are the successors of the apostles.

What is the role of the new archbishop during Vespers, and how does it symbolize their new position?

The Cathedral is significant as it is the mother church of the archdiocese. It is to both represent and model for the people of the whole archdiocese. The soon-to-be archbishop knocks on the door and is welcomed by Catholics from the whole archdiocese, but he does not yet sit in the bishop's chair, or "cathedra". As with the miter (a bishop's hat) and the crozier (a bishop's pastoral staff), the bishop's chair signifies his role as servant leader in the example of Jesus, the Good Shepherd. As Archbishop Zinkula was already ordained a bishop, he entered with the same crozier used by Bishop Matthias Loras, the founding bishop of the Archdiocese of Dubuque.

We offer a warm "welcome home" to Archbishop Zinkula!

The Cathedral of St. Raphael—the mother church of the archdiocese—is one of four financial beneficiaries of the ArchdioceseOne Special Appeal. There is still time to make new gifts and pledges to ArchdioceseOne before December 31, 2023 for it to count toward the goals of the special appeal. Gifts can be made online at www.archdioceseone.org, or mailed to ArchdioceseOne, 1229 Mt. Loretta Ave, Dubuque, IA 52003.
