To the St. Joseph Parish Community

Thank You
Thank you for your prayers with the passing of my father, James Bauer. Words do not adequately express how much your cards, notes and prayers helped ease the sorrow of our loss. We are comforted through the support and prayers of so many. Knowing many of you were thinking of our family is a blessing. We are privileged to be part of such a supportive community. May God grant His abundant blessings upon our parish community. St Joseph pray for us.

Deacon Ken and Rosemary Bauer

Fourth Sunday of Advent—This weekend, the emphasis of Advent shifts as the Mass helps us to make immediate preparations for Christmas. Throughout the week since December 17th, the Church has chosen scriptures for Mass that speak of the events immediately preceding and preparing for the birth of Jesus.

Today's gospel recounts the beautiful meeting between cousins: The elderly Elizabeth pregnant with John the Baptist—for nothing shall be impossible for God—and Mary, the young teen who is carrying Jesus, her son. These pregnant women, Elizabeth perhaps representing the Old Covenant made by God with his people, and the Blessed Mother, the New Covenant made through the gift of Jesus, joyfully meet as both have been graced by God. The old and the new come together in God's perfect plan for our salvation. I wish I could have been there to witness the event!

The words spoken by Elizabeth to Mary echo through the ages, "Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled." How trusting of God the Blessed Mother was to consent to be the Mother of Jesus. She would be vulnerable to the backlash of society, her religious Tradition and Joseph for having done so. She saw beyond all of that, not as a naive teenager, but one who had a solid trust in God. The word of God is good, true and eternal. What God says shall be and Mary was confident in the surety of eternal word of God.

I don't think I'll ever stop marveling at Mary's trust in God or reflecting upon what it means. I hope to realize the same thing in my life, that I believe what God has spoken to me will be fulfilled. It is hard to embrace when so much is happening in the world and in my life. Throw in the negative and sinful, and that becomes a formidable obstacle. Satan, the deceiver, sprinkles doubt that God tells the truth, or if he does, that there would be some loophole to compromise his trustworthiness. But, God is God and I/we are not. It takes a while to accept and believe that it is so and his word is ever true and will never fail. It does boil down to trusting in him.

Christmas Greetings—on behalf of the priests, deacons, parish and school staff, I'd like to extend to you all greetings for a Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year.

The angels told the shepherds at Bethlehem about Christ's birth and invited them to go and see him. The Magi (the three pagan kings) journeyed from far off lands to see Jesus and returned home by another route. They, like the shepherds, were moved and affected by what and who they saw. Now, as you commemorate and celebrate the birth of Jesus this week, go out and tell people about Jesus whom you met at Christmas. The world is starving for the good news Jesus bears and the freedom he brings through the forgiveness of sins. Tell others about him. Be the bearers of the good news as were the shepherds and the Magi.
