Guess Who's Coming To Dinner? - 2019

Back by popular demand, the Parish Life Committee is sponsoring this fun event.

Mark your calendars for Sunday,

January 27, 2019. Details will come later, in the bulletin. Right now, we are in need of couples or singles to host a dinner group of other adult parishioners. You decide how many people you are comfortable hosting, and then prepare the entrée and provide drink. Your guests will provide salad and/or vegetable. After the meal, everyone meets up at the Church Hall for dessert. The fun part is that no one will know who is in their dinner party until they all show up! Hosts don't know, and guests are only provided the address and what kind of food item to bring. This is a fun way to meet some of your fellow parishioners other than just seeing them on your way in or out of church! So if hosting might be for you, now is the time to call or email Sharron Konzen, at 319-350-9861 or rkonzen@yahoo.com.

Aging religious need your help

Senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests ministered for years for little to no pay. Their sacrifices now leave their religious communities without adequate retirement savings. Your gift to today's second collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious helps to provide medications, nursing care, and more for tens of thousands of elderly religious. Please be generous. Thank you.

Early Deadlines - St. Joseph Bulletin

Bulletin Date: December 16 - Deadline December 10

Bulletin Date: December 23 - Deadline December 14

Advent Soup Supper

Have you ever discussed the new and everlasting covenant with friends and family? If not, join us this Advent for the praying of the Rosary, scripture readings, and a free soup supper with lively discussion for all on the covenantal relationships God has established with the human race through history. Sessions will be on the Friday before each Sunday of Advent. The dates are as follows, December 14, and December 21. We will start in the church at 5:00 PM with the Rosary and scriptures. The supper will start at 5:30 PM with a short introduction to the topic for discussion, in which Christians of all ages can participate. A non perishable food item can be brought for the food pantry or a free will offering opportunity will be provided. Come and share a meal with your parish family.

Your wonderful smile and friendly greeting is needed at our door! St. Joe's is looking for warm and welcoming folks to be door greeters for the various Masses. On the job training is available! Please contact Patty Kelly at p.kelly@dbqarch.org if you are interested.

Advent Reflections

*A voice calls out, "Prepare the way for the Lord!"
May my heart be prepared for you to enter;
My being ready to behold your saving power.
Give me strength to live your justice and sow your peace.
In the wilderness of life, I await your salvation.
Amen*

“Then the wolf shall be a guest of the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid” (Is 11: 6a)

—The recent death of President George H. W. Bush has been an authentic expression of national mourning. Both aisles of Congress paid tribute to our forty-first president and reached out to his grieving family. There were many touching scenes of former associates and collaborators of President

Bush mourning his loss along with ordinary Americans. Death can do many things including bringing a nation together in a way reminiscent of what we hear from the prophet Isaiah that I quoted. Enemies come together, speak to one another and mutually honor and respect the dead. It is a great example even if it is but fleeting. Ultimately, only Jesus can save and unify us. So far, anyway, there has been no screaming, rancorous people hurling incivilities. Rather, seeing order out of chaos this week helps to inspire the hope we find expressed in Advent, that one day, “the baby shall play by the cobra’s den, and the child lay his hand on the adder’s lair” (Is 11: 8).

The Retirement Fund for Religious—annual collection is this weekend. Last year, we raised $ 172,000 in the archdiocese to support the religious men and women who have generously served in our archdiocese and the nation. May we build on that generosity this year.

We Need a New Roof for the Church—I asked Santa if he could bring it to us for Christmas, but he can’t fit it into his sleigh and the reindeer can’t haul it from the North Pole. So, we’re going to have to care for it ourselves. There will be more to share in the coming weeks.
