2015 World Mission Sunday Appeal

It's Our World on Mission

Donate at: www.Givetothemissions.org. Your gift is tax-deductible.

Your prayers and generous support offered to the Society for the propagation of the Faith on World Mission Sunday directly benefit the mission Church—places like Mongolia and Zambia, Papua New Guinea and Indonesia, where young churches are growing, filled with zeal for the faith, but lacking resources for its outreach to families and those in need.

It's our world on mission, and through your prayers and assistance on World Mission Sunday, you too are “on mission” - supporting the loving services offered to the poor half a world away by priests, religious and lay leaders. Thank you!

2015 PSA Campaign

There is still time to make a pledge to the 2015 PSA Campaign!

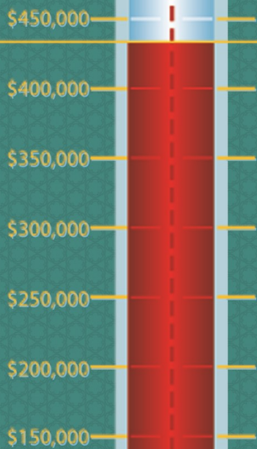

HAVE YOU PLEDGED?

$ 500,000

PARISH GOAL

$431,000

Thank you!
Diocese goal met.
All pledges now come back to St. Martin!

PROUD TO BE CATHOLIC
LIVING OUR FAITH

When we began this year's PSA Campaign, we set a goal as a parish to raise $500,000. The first $113,000 we raised went to the Diocese to support the Deaconate, Catholic education, and a dozen other worthy endeavors.

Every dollar after that comes back to St. Martin's to support our ministries here at our parish home.

To date, thanks to the generosity of 476 St. Martin's parishioners, we have raised $415,000 toward our $500,000 goal!

If you have already pledged, thank you! If you have not, I encourage you to prayerfully consider doing so now. I'd like to see our parish reach the goal we set at the beginning of the year.

No pledge is too small (or too large!) - every pledge counts, and every dollar helps us to get closer to our goal!

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

If you do not receive an envelope, please contact the parish office at (714) 970-2771.

Engage! Say "I Do."

COMMUNITY LIFE

PLEASE HELP THE INTERFAITH SHELTER NETWORK

The Interfaith Shelter is still looking to fill the leadership slots for both Transportation and Special Events for this year's rotation at Saint Martin's, December 12th through January 2nd in the Hall. These positions could be filled either by an individual, a family, friends or a group. Transportation coordinates the schedule of those parishioners who volunteer to drive our guests to work and/or to the laundromat, easy peasy. Special Events coordinates both the Christmas exchange and the east coast New Year's Eve party (6-9PM in the Hall). Here again, with the involvement of many of our very generous parishioners, it's an easy and fun task. Please, give it some thought; ask your family members, friends, or group members to join you. It's fun, and it's very rewarding, and we're committed to providing our guests with a "five star" experience this year. Contact Jim Thomsen at 714-932-5176 or jimandcathy@earthlink.net.

THE INTERFAITH SHELTER

Interfaith Shelter is still looking to fill the leadership slots for both Transportation and Special Events for this year's rotation at Saint Martin's, December 12th through January 2nd in the Hall. These positions could be filled either by an individual, a family, friends or a group. Transportation coordinates the schedule of those parishioners who volunteer to drive our guests to work and/or to the laundromat, easy peasy. Special Events coordinates both the Christmas exchange and the east coast New Year's Eve party (6-9PM in the Hall). Here again, with the involvement of many of our very generous parishioners, it's an easy and fun task. Please, give it some thought; ask your family members, friends, or group members to join you. It's fun, and it's very rewarding, and we're committed to providing our guests with a "five star" experience this year. Contact Jim Thomsen at 714-932-5176 or jimandcathy@earthlink.net.

A STORY CONCERNING THE INTERFAITH SHELTER

A few years ago during our annual rotation, I got a call from one of our guests asking if he could get a ride back to the church. He was coming from work and just missed his bus transfer, which meant that if he tried to walk or wait for the next bus, he would be late for check-in and dinner. I drove down to pick him up, and in the half hour that it took to do so, my life was changed dramatically.

Peter (as I will call him), looked familiar when I first met him a few days before at the orientation we have with our new guests the first day of our rotation. When I mentioned this on the way back to church, he said I too looked familiar. Well, by the time we arrived at the hall we discovered that we had first met less than a year before when I purchased a thumb drive for my computer at the Placentia AT&T store where he was working.

A lot happened to Peter after our first meeting. Peter, who was living in Anaheim with his wife and two daughters; one attending Esperanza H.S. and the other CSUF, lost his job. He was, however, promised a new job in Sacramento, but when he arrived discovered that the position had already been filled. He returned home, unemployed and broke.

Peter entered the Interfaith Shelter program, and with the support of ISN and the participating churches was able to find work and save almost $5,000 before graduating out of the program. Peter comes back from time to time to act as an overnight and weekend supervisor.

Peter is just one story that I have to tell, and I'm just one of hundreds of volunteers who have the opportunity to work with our guests each year. Perhaps you'd like to have a story to tell as well. Contact Jim Thomsen at 714-932-5176 or jimandcathy@earthlink.net for more information about how to get involved.

HOW DOES SOMEONE BECOME CATHOLIC? THEY JOIN THE RCIA!

What is the RCIA? RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults but, according to a young man who recently went through the process, it should also stand for Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing. He speaks for the hundreds of individuals who have been a part of this challenging, exciting, and life-changing experience at St. Martin's.

Have you or a friend ever considered joining the Catholic Church? The RCIA process will give you the opportunity to ask questions, learn about the Church's teaching, and be part of a community who will walk with you on your journey of faith. Those who are not baptized, were baptized in other Christian denominations, or were baptized

Catholic but have not been Confirmed or received the Eucharist are led by a team made up of clergy, staff and volunteers through an unforgettable one to two year process. RCIA meets mostly on Sundays after the 8:45 AM Mass, culminating with Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. If you would like to have a Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing experience leading to full communion with the Catholic Church, call Curtis Keddy at 714/970-2771 or email curtisk@smdp.org.

The St. Martin de Porres choir members have been invited to sing at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, in celebration of Vatican II's 50th Anniversary.
