CHILDREN FAITH FORMATION

EUCCHARIST I MONDAYS:

November 2nd classes will cover 2 chapters, chapters 4 & 5. We will talk about how Jesus works among the people and how He teaches us about love.

In honor of our very own saint's feast day, the secret word for both classes this week is "St. Martin".

EUCCHARIST II TUESDAYS:

SUNDAY PRESCHOOL

3-4 Year Old Class: The lesson today, My Family, will teach the children about families and will talk about who is in their family. The lesson will remind the children that God gives us families to love us and to take care of us. Last week's highlight: Ms. Leanne was sharing with the children about God's love and asking for examples of how we can love our parents.

4-5 Year Old Class: The lesson today, Jesus Cares For His Friends, will discuss the various feelings we experience, just as Jesus experienced both happy and sad times in life.

Last week's highlight: Ms. Andie carefully picked up the crucifix from the prayer table and asked the children why Jesus was on the cross.

GRACE WOMEN'S GROUP MEETS ON NOVEMBER 14TH

Come enjoy a faith-filled morning of friends & fellowship.

Our guest speaker Brendan O'Shea

Seven years ago, a man brought a case of water to down town L. A. to help the homeless. In time, that case of water has evolved into food and clothes for 300. St Martins has adopted Skid Row as their newest ministry. Come, listen on November 14 as Brendan O'Shea tells how this ministry has caught fire, and how more than a thousand people have had the opportunity to experience, what that man discovered. We'll see you right after the 8:00 AM Mass (about 8:45) in the St. Elizabeth Room. All are welcome and if you have any questions, please contact Elizabeth Blush by phone: 714-319-1452 or by email: elizabeth.blush@st

"A Call to Discipleship" Apostles of Interior Life St. Martin de Porres Fall Parish Mission 2015

FALL PARISH MISSION: "A CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP"

What are you doing to prepare for the season of Advent? Consider attending our Fall Parish Mission with the Apostles of the Interior Life, a private association of the faithful recognized by the diocese of Rome whose apostolate consists in taking care of the spiritual and human formation of others through evangelization, formation and direction. They offer many parish missions through the US and Italy as opportunities for communities to be re-vitalized and challenged in the growth towards holiness. Three Sisters of the Interior Life will be coming to our parish to inspire, encourage, and remind us of our Call to Discipleship.

Talks will be from 7:15-8:45pm

Monday, November 16: A Call to Holiness and Prayer

Tuesday, November 17: A Call to Eucharist

Wednesday, November 18: A Call to Conversion (will include an opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation)

During each day there will be opportunity for prayer and Spiritual Direction with the Sisters (sign-ups will be available following the masses on November 14/15). They will also be taking time to visit those sick and homebound in our community.

THE INTERFAITH SHELTER

Interfaith Shelter is still looking to fill the leadership slots for both Transportation and Special Events for this year's rotation at Saint Martin's, December 12th through January 2nd in the Hall. These positions could be filled either by an individual, a family, friends or a group. Transportation coordinates the schedule of those parishioners who volunteer to drive our guests to work and/or to the laundromat, easy peasy. Special Events coordinates both the Christmas exchange and the east coast New Year's Eve party (6-9PM in the Hall). Here again, with the involvement of many of our very generous parishioners, it's an easy and fun task. Please, give it some thought; ask your family members, friends, or group members to join you. It's fun, and it's very rewarding, and we're committed to providing our guests with a "five star" experience this year. Contact Jim Thomsen at 714-932-5176 or jimandcathy@earthlink.net.

A STORY CONCERNING THE INTERFAITH SHELTER

A few years ago during our annual rotation, I got a call from one of our guests asking if he could get a ride back to the church. He was coming from work and just missed his bus transfer, which meant that if he tried to walk or wait for the next bus, he would be late for check-in and dinner. I drove down to pick him up, and in the half hour that it took to do so, my life was changed dramatically.

Peter (as I will call him), looked familiar when I first met him a few days before at the orientation we have with our new guests the first day of our rotation. When I mentioned this on the way back to church, he said I too looked familiar. Well, by the time we arrived at the hall we discovered that we had first met less than a year before when I purchased a thumb drive for my computer at the Placentia AT&T store where he was working.

A lot happened to Peter after our first meeting. Peter, who was living in Anaheim with his wife and two daughters; one attending Esperanza H.S. and the other CSUF, lost his job. He was, however, promised a new job in Sacramento, but when he arrived discovered that the position had already been filled. He returned home, unemployed and broke.

Peter entered the Interfaith Shelter program, and with the support of ISN and the participating churches was able to find work and save almost $5,000 before graduating out of the program. Peter comes back from time to time to act as an overnight and weekend supervisor.

Peter is just one story that I have to tell, and I'm just one of hundreds of volunteers who have the opportunity to work with our guests each year. Perhaps you'd like to have a story to tell as well. Contact Jim Thomsen at 714-932-5176 or jimandcathy@earthlink.net. for more information about how to get involved.

HOW DOES SOMEONE BECOME CATHOLIC? THEY JOIN THE RCIA!

What is the RCIA? RCIA stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults but, according to a young man who recently went through the process, it should also stand for Righteous, Compassionate, Inspirational and Amazing. He speaks for the hundreds of individuals who have been a part of this challenging, exciting, and life-changing experience at St. Martin's.

Have you or a friend ever considered joining the Catholic Church? The RCIA process will give you the opportunity to ask questions, learn about the Church's teaching, and be part of a community who will walk with you on your journey of faith. Those who are not baptized, were baptized in other Christian denominations, or were baptized

Catholic but have not been Confirmed or received the Eucharist are led by a team made up of clergy, staff and volunteers through an unforgettable one to two year process. RCIA meets mostly on Sundays after the 8:45 AM Mass, culminating with Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. ## OUTREACH MINISTRY SUMMARIES - JULY & AUGUST 2015

Craig Park Ministry Report – July 2015: On July 12th, the Craig Park Ministry took place at the La Habra Hills Presbyterian Church in the city of La Habra. Our SMdP Volunteers served 56 of our family members (48 adults and 8 children) a hot lunch and later distributed weekly groceries. Lunch consisted of Sloppy Joe's, golden corn, cookies, fresh fruit and cold lemonade. The La Habra Hills Presbyterian Church added cake and French toast to the meal. Second meals and take-home lunches were plentiful on this day, and we were fortunate to help provide groceries to two of our homeless brothers. SMdP Outreach provided 15 Boxes of Love to our families. This was made possible by the great response from SMdP Parishioners who contributed to this program. Thanks to all the volunteers who helped serve the working poor of our community—YOU ARE A BLESSING!!!

Craig Park Ministry Report – August 2015: The Craig Park Ministry was held on Sunday, August 9th, at the La Habra Hills Presbyterian Church in the city of La Habra. A total of 65 people (45 adults and 20 children) were served a hot lunch. Sloppy Joe's, golden corn, fresh fruit, cookies and cold lemonade were served that afternoon to all our family members. After lunch, weekly groceries were distributed. The La Habra Hills Presbyterian Church parishioners also distributed backpacks filled with school supplies to all the children. Thanks to all the amazing SMdP Volunteers—YOU ARE A BLESSING!!!

Isaiah House Ministry Report – July 2015: On July 1st, a team of five St. Martin de Porres volunteers prepared salads for the Civic Center and Isaiah House. The tossed green salad had every delicious and healthy green vegetable. We were given this assignment with open arms. We were a small team but efficient in the preparation of these salads for over 220 people. After the salads were delivered, we prepared a traditional summer favorite for the 20 Isaiah House women. This meal consisted of hot dogs, bake beans and salad. Leah wanted to clear the refrigerator of the items. The 20 ladies thanked us for sharing our time and dedication to serve. We all felt good for our time there.

Due to the small number of ladies of Isaiah House, the St. Martins team seem to be limited in the number of warm meals we were asked to prepare. Hopefully this will change. The Isaiah House kitchen is now fully operational.

Leah at Isaiah House informed me she may be considering another scheduling change. I will send out a general notice to all our volunteers if a change in schedule does occur. With God's blessings, I hope a new schedule will not impact our tremendous support.

Isaiah House Ministry Report – August 2015: On August 5th, a team of four St. Martin de Porres volunteers served a delicious cream-chicken entree along with corn casserole, fruit salad, and apple pie alamode dessert. (The ladies of Isaiah House loved the dessert to no end!)

Prior to serving dinner to the women, we assisted the volunteers for the Civic Center meal group in loading their van. We were a small team but efficient in the preparation of the night's dinner and assisting those in need. There was plenty of food for the Isaiah House women this night, with many coming for seconds.

Again, the ladies thanked us for sharing our time and dedication to serve. We all felt good for our time there. Leah, Isaiah House facilitator, asked if we were still interested in changing back to the third Wednesday of the month to accommodate more volunteers. I mentioned we would stay with our next date of September 2nd, and I would send out a general notice to see how many prefer the third Wednesday of the month instead of the first Wednesday of the month.

The number of ladies at Isaiah House is still about 20-plus. Maybe this will change, but we had a great group who gave it their all while we were there. With God's blessings, we continue to serve and receive many blessings in return.

Soup Kitchen Report - July 2015: St. Martin's Soup Kitchen Ministry served over 100 hungry souls at the Southwest Community Center (home of the Soup Kitchen) for the month of July. A big "THANK YOU" to our July Team Leaders and volunteers—Your service and devotion to the Soup Kitchen Ministry is greatly appreciated! Now on to the reports...

On Saturday, July 18, St. Martin's fed 45 hungry folks at the Soup Kitchen in Santa Ana, and 25 folks came back for seconds. It was raining, so our numbers were down. The attendees enjoyed Sloppy Joe's, coleslaw, apples & oranges, cookies, coffee & punch. All were appreciative and asked us to thank the parishioners of St. Martin's for making the meal possible! Many thanks to those who donate to Outreach and a special thank you to the wonderful volunteers. God Bless you all!!!

Sunday, July 26, was a perfect day of service in Santa Ana — the sun was out with clear blue skies, and we had a turnout of about 60 locals. Along with the Team Leader, we had eight people volunteer, and they were all eager to help, which made it a relaxed day. Our menu was: Hot Dogs smothered in chili, Corn, Watermelon, Lemonade, and M&M Chocolate-chip cookies for dessert. We were prepared for 100 people and had a strong turnout, serving lots of seconds...our guests for the day were well fed. The team had some extra time today, but everyone stepped up and kept smiling throughout. This was the perfect team for a perfect day...and everything went PERFECT!!

Soup Kitchen Report - August 2015: St Martin's Soup Kitchen Ministry served 90 hungry souls at the Southwest Community Center (home of the Soup Kitchen) for the month of August thanks to our ever-giving Team Leader couple and their amazing volunteers! YEAH Soup Kitchen Ministry! Note: We were advised by the Health Department this month that homemade items are no longer allowed to be served at Southwest Community Center; only store-bought items may be served.

Apparently the word didn't get out that our team was serving our world-famous chili-cheese dogs, because only about 40 hungry souls showed up on Sunday, August 23rd, for our delicious spread. The delicious meal consisted of tossed green salad with an enormous variety of ingredients, chili-cheese dogs, sliced peaches, tortilla chips, green beans, chocolate-chip cookies and champagne-flavored punch. Many of the diners came back for seconds, and a few health-conscious ones wanted only salad and green beans. Everyone left happy, including our team of St. Martin servers.

Saturday, August 29th, was a sweltering day in Santa Ana, but the Soup Kitchen crew kept their cool and served a delicious lunch to 50 hungry and grateful souls, with 10 coming back for seconds. Lunch consisted of turkey sandwiches with lettuce, tomato, cheese, mayonnaise, and mustard on a Kaiser roll, with pickles on the side along with a bag of potato chips. Ice-cold lemon tea and a dessert of ice cream sandwiches were also served. As you can imagine, the ice cream was a big hit with the hot and hungry lunch crowd. Lunch began at noon, and by one o'clock, the crew had served, cleaned up, packed up and was headed home. Everyone involved felt blessed and was looking forward to the next time.

“GOOD GRIEF! HERE COMES CHRISTMAS!”

For most people, the holidays are highly anticipated days of family celebration, re-union, gift-giving and fun. Others dread the holidays or simply endure them. For them, the holidays represent loss and loneliness.

If you have recently lost a loved one or you have had losses in the past that cause you to associate sorrow with the holidays, you are invited to this retreat.

A simple time of retreat and reflection for persons who have suffered loss and are experiencing bereavement. In addition to reflection, practical suggestions for how to “be” during the holiday season will be offered. Treat yourself to a little TLC as we move through this busy time.
