Moments of Mercy

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Half the liturgical year 2016 is completed after six months of extraordinary celebrations. The Incarnation mystery: Jesus' advent, nativity, epiphany. The Paschal mystery: Jesus' passion, death, resurrection, Pentecost's Holy Spirit. The solemnities of Holy Trinity and Jesus' Body and Blood. Today the Church resumes Sundays in Ordinary Time, but with a Gospel of extraordinary mercy: Jesus raises a dead man to life. Yet the one who benefits most from his extraordinary mercy is not the dead son but his widowed mother. With her husband and only son deceased, this woman's material support, in that patriarchal society, had vanished. So had her emotional support, leaving her helpless, abandoned, on society's "peripheries." One of Pope Francis' hopes in calling this Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy is to transform us into more extraordinary Christians, by making our caring outreach to just such vulnerable people, and our practical self-sacrificing love for them, our ordinary, daily, Christian way of life!

"Stay where you are. Find your own Calcutta. Find the sick, the suffering and the lonely right there where you are — in your own homes and in your own families, in your workplaces and in your schools. ... You can find Calcutta all over the world, if you have the eyes to see. Everywhere, wherever you go, you find people who are unwanted, unloved, uncared for, just rejected by society — completely forgotten, completely left alone." - Blessed Mother Teresa †

Discussing: "Faith Taking Shape: Early Christianity and the Arts" In light of the spectacular historical contributions of Christianity to Western Art, one might suppose that glorious religious art would somehow be inevitable. But given the Old Testament Biblical prohibition of the creation of graven images, and early classical philosophical reservations, it was by no means likely that Christianity would develop any art at all. Aside from simple early Christian symbols found in the catacombs, it wasn't until Emperor Constantine's Edict of Milan in 313 AD that gave legal status to Christianity and allowed for large church structures and shrines to come into being, that powerful arguments began to build for and against the creation and display of Christian arts. Between 300 and 1000 AD, Christian theologians developed a special vocabulary and conceptual framework for talking about God. In those same centuries, as Christian art developed and spread, Christians also learned how to talk about art. There are surprises and ironies in these two parallel developments. This presentation will explore how and why distinctive Christian art emerged.
